ters who went to Maryland early, before 1770, were:—Elder Jacob Donner, from the Codorus Church, York County; Elder Daniel Leatherman and Elder Nicolas Martin, both from Little Conewago Church, in York County, Pennsylvania. These were prominent and active elders, and frequently returned to the Pennsylvania churches on preaching tours, and important church councils. This much must suffice for a notice of the work to the southward, from Pennsylvania. We hope that soon the Brethren in Maryland will make a thorough research of their antecedents, and after having gathered all available data possible, make a careful study of their history, and publish the fruits of their labors, for the instruction and inspiration of the coming generations.

A Momentous Period in American History.—It is well to note some of the external conditions with which our Brethren were surrounded during the latter years of this period under consideration. It was indeed a momentous period in American history, as to political and military conditions. In this period fall two wars in which the Americans and the English fought against the French; and it also marks the beginning of a far greater one, in which the Americans and the French fought against the English. In the former wars, the French lost their empire in America; and in the latter, in the succeeding period, England forever lost a vast empire, and the beginnings of a mighty nation. It was scarcely less momentous from educational and religious considerations. The following panoramic sketch is full of interest, as well as thoughtfully suggestive:—

> "It was in this period under review that Thomas Jefferson was born; that Washington rose from a forest ranger to a general's rank; that Franklin became famous as a printer, and an inventor, and won some notoriety for his antipathy to the Pennsylvania Dutch; that Jonathan Edwards published his work on the freedom of the human will; that Zinzendorf the Moravian, Mühlenberg the Lutheran, Schlatter the German Reformed, and Whitefield the Methodist, all came to Pennsylvania or neighboring colonies; that the northern Indian tribes rose in that mighty conspiracy under the crafty Pontiac; that the Stamp Act was passed by the British Parliament one year and repealed the next; that Patrick Henry and James Otis set the land aflame with words and ideas; and that there was fired one April morning in the dim light at Lexington, near Boston, 'the shot heard round the world.'
> "It was a stirring time; a period of aggressive strivings, momentous beginnings and of rapid developments; and, unfortunately for us, a period of too scanty records. Our fathers of that time were too busy subduing wild nature, and overcoming want and long distances, to pay much attention to writing history. They were making it, not writing it. We have entered into their labors with joy and thanksgiving, but we long to know more of their story."[3]

In Southern Pennsylvania.—This field is exceedingly interesting, from the fact of its early beginnings and rapid developments. The Brethren at an early day crossed the Susquehanna, entered what is now York County, and occupied many hundreds of its fertile acres. The strong congregations within the county to-day attest their prosperity for one hundred and seventy-five years. The Little Conewago Church was the first to be organized, in 1738, with Elder Daniel Leatherman as their minister; and upon his moving to Maryland, Elder Nicholas Martin was their minister. He also went to Maryland, as noted before, and when the Church was thirty-two years old, in 1770, Brethren Jacob Moyer and James Henrich, not ordained, were the ministers. The Conewago Church was organized, three years later, in 1741; Elder George Adam Martin was the minister. Later Leatherman and Martin, from the Little Conewago, also ministered to them, until they left the state. In 1770, George Brown, not ordained, was the minister; the Church, with a membership of 77, was the next to the largest church in the Brotherhood, Conestoga alone being larger. The Codorus Church was organized in 1758 with Elder Jacob Tanner, or Donner, as their minister. When he went to Maryland Henry Neff was their minister in 1770. The Bermudian Church was organized by Beissel, in 1758, name, in the township of Tulpehokon and county of Berks, twenty-five miles from Reading and eighty-one miles NWbW from Philadelphia. Some of the people live in Bether Township in Lancaster County. They hold their worship in private houses. Their preacher is Mr. Peter Heckman, but he is not ordained. The families belonging to the society are about nineteen whereof forty-five*) persons are baptized. This is their present state.

*) Peter Heckman, exhor[ter] and wife, Jacob Heckman and wife, Michael Frantz and wife, Nicholas Gerst and wife, Jacob Moyer and wife, George Beasher, David Marge and wife, Simon Menich and wife, John Frantz and wife, Christian Frantz and wife, Rose Shnables, Jacob Smith and wife, Liss Kentzel, Adam Henrich, Mrs. Cyder, Philip Zeigler and wife, Jacob Brencisen and wife, David Kleine and wife, Widow Benedict, Elizabeth Benedict, Sophy Kish, Leonard Sebalt and wife, John Grove, Jacob Baker and wife, John Deal and wife, Hans Stohler and wife, Jacob Beshor and wife.

Their beginning was in this manner. About the year 1745 one George Besher settled in this neighbourhood, and one Michael Frantz, Peter Heckman, John Frantz, and others. These were baptized by Rev. George Kleine, and in 1757 coalesced into a church having the said Kleine to their assistance. He has ministered the Lord's supper to them ever since; but they purpose soon to ordain Mr. Peter Heckman.

Northkill

This little society is distinguished as above from a small river called Northkill, in the townships of Tulpehokon and Bern, county of Berks, fifteen miles from Reading and seventy-one miles NWbW from Philadelphia. The minister is Rev. George Kleine. He was born at Zweinbrecken in Germany, October 9, 1715. Came to America in 1738. Was baptized in 1739 by Mr. Naas of Amwell in the Jersey. Ordained in 1757 by Rev. Michael Pffautz and Martin Urner. He married Dorothy Repman by whom he has seven children.[15] The families belonging to them are seven, whereof eleven*) persons are baptized and in fellowship. This is their present state.

*) Rev. George Kleine and wife, Valentine Lang, Elizabeth Reiler, Elizabeth Stump, Sarah Solenberger, John Stohner and wife, Mary Stohner, Susanna Mackley, Elizabeth Brandel.

They began to be a church about the year 1748 when one John Stump and sister, Frederick Moyer and wife, with a few more, had the Lord's supper administered to them by the Rev. Michael Pffautz. About two years after, their present minister settled among them. The society was reduced to its now low estate, by the removal of families to other parts.

Codorus

This society is distinguished as above from a river, that is called Codorus, in a township of the same name in the county of York, eleven miles from the town of York, and ninety-nine miles WhS from Philadelphia. The preacher is Mr. Henry Neff, but he is not ordained. The families belonging to the place are about twenty whereof thirty-five*) persons are baptized and members of the church. This is their present state.

*) Henry Neff exhor[ter] and wife, Jacob Tilman and wife and daughter, Jacob Spitler and wife and two daughters, Peter Brilharth and wife, Jacob Neiswanger and wife, Ann Neiswanger, Catherine Beightley, Elizabeth Leip, George Beary and wife, John Harold and wife, Rudy Yunt and wife, William Spitler and wife, Christian Eby and wife, Wendel Baker and wife, Michael Berkey and wife, George Ettor and son, Mathias Sitler and wife, Susanna Weltner.

They began to be a church about the year 1758 when one Rudy Yunt, Peter Brilharth, John Brilharth and others, united for communion of saints, having Rev. Jacob Tanner to their assistance. This Tanner left them to go to Monocasy; since, they have been supplied from other places. Mr. Neff will soon be ordained.

Little Conewago 1738

This society is so distinguished from a branch of the river Conewago near to which the people made their settlements, in the township of Hanover and county of York, twenty miles from the town of York and 107 miles WhS from Philadelphia. The preachers are Mess[rs]. Jacob Moyer and James Henrick, but are not ordained. The families belonging to the place are about forty, whereof fifty-two*) persons are baptized.

*) Jacob Moyer, exhor[ter] and wife, James Henrick, exhor[ter] and wife, Hans Adam Sneider and wife, Barbara Sneider, George Wine and wife, John Geiny, Daniel Woods and wife, Henry Geiny and wife, Joseph Moyer and wife, Nicholas Housteter and wife, Christian Housteter, Rudy Brown and wife, Mrs. Powser, Mrs. Moyer, Stephen Peter, wife and daughter, Maud Powser, George Peter, Henry Tanner and wife, Michael Tanner and wife, John Moyer and wife, Jacob Souder and wife, Henry Hoeff and wife, Hesther Weise, Christian Etor, John Peter Weaver, Barbara Bear, John Swarts and wife, Liss Bearing, Great Hymen.

Their beginning was in 1738 when one Eldrick, Dierdorff, Bigler, Gripe, Studsman and others united into a church, having Rev. Daniel Leatherman to their assistance. He left them and went to Monocasy. After him they had Rev. Nicholas Martin who also quitted them to go to Conecocheague, of both [of] which we shall speak when we come to the Baptists in Maryland. Their successors are the present ministers, before mentioned.

Conewago

This society also takes its distinction from a river of the above name near to which the people reside, in the township of Reading, county of York, fourteen miles from the town of York and 101 miles W from Philadelphia. Their preacher is Mr. George Brown, who is not ordained. The families are about forty-five whereof seventy-seven*) persons are baptized.

Their beginning as a society, was in the year 1741 when John Neagley, Adam Sower, Jacob Sweigard, Peter Neiper, Joseph Latzcho, etc., did unite for communion of saints, having to their assistance Rev. George Adam Martin, of whom more hereafter. Next to him were Rev. Daniel Leatherman and Nicholas Martin, of whom we shall speak when we come to Maryland.

Bermudian

This society also is distinguished by the above name of a little river, in the township of Warrington and county of York, fifteen miles from the town of York and 102 miles WhN from Philadelphia. Most of these people observe the seventh day of the week for sabbath, and are to be considered as the offspring of [the] Ephrata church. Their preacher is Mr. Henry Lowman, who is not ordained. The families are about forty, whereof fifty-eight*) persons are baptized.

They began to be a church in 1758 when Philip Gebel, Peter Beissel, Henry Lowman and others united for communion of saints, having Rev. Conrad Beissel to their assistance. Afterwards Rev. Mess[rs]. Peter Miller and George Adam Martin and others officiated among them.

Stony Creek

This is also denominated from a little river of the above name, in the township of Bruederthal (alias Brotherstown) in the county of Bedford, thirty miles from Bedford and 245 miles WhN from Philadelphia. The minister is Rev. George Adam Martin of whom mention has been made before. He was born near Landstuhl in Germany in the year 1751. Was bred a Presbyterian. Embraced the principles of the Baptists in 1737, and was ordained by Peter Baker in 1739. Afterwards he resided at Little Conewago where some misunderstanding arose between him and the people and occasioned him to remove to Antitum. In the year 1762 he adopted the sentiments of the Seventh Day Baptists, and preached at Bermudian. From there he went to Stonycreek this year. He married one of the Knippers and has many children.[16] The families belonging to the place are twelve whereof seventeen persons are baptized and may be considered as the constituents of the church, viz. Rev. George Adam Martin and wife, Henry Roth and wife and daughter, Henry Roth, Jr., and wife, George Newmoyer, Philip Oswald and wife and daughter, Abraham Gebel and wife, Philip Kimmel and wife, Mr. Widdebarger and wife. This church also is the offspring of Ephrata where (for the most part) the seventh-day sabbath is kept.

Thus we see that there are in this province fifteen churches of Germantown, before 1748, for in that year, he was not only in full fellowship with his Brethren, but also in their full confidence. Christopher Sower records in his diary, "On June 7, 1748, there were placed upon me and Brother Sander (Alexander) Mack the oversight (Aufsicht) of the Brotherhood (Gemeinschaft) on trial.[7] Brother Brumbaugh adds:—

> "Prior to this Alexander Mack must have returned and made fitting apology for his absence, and lived long enough among the members to win their confidence and love. Otherwise they would not have given him the joint oversight of the congregation. This closes his career as a wanderer and marks the beginning of fifty-five years of continuous service in the ministry of the Church of the Brethren."

According to the further record in the diary of Elder Sower, they served as Elders on trial for five years, and were then ordained with the laying on of hands by Elder Peter Becker, on June 10, 1753. These two Elders, the successors of Alexander Mack, Sr., and Peter Becker, became the most prominent Elders in their generation, during the closing years of this period, and during and after the Revolutionary War. Under their joint Eldership the Germantown Church prospered, and their influence extended throughout the entire Brotherhood.

Prominent Elders.—Some of the Elders who constituted a tower of strength during a part of, or all, of this period of 30 years, from 1740 to 1770, are the following: Peter Becker, Germantown; Alexander Mack, Germantown; Christopher Sower, Germantown; John Naas, New Jersey; First Martin Urner, Coventry; Second Martin Urner, Coventry; Michael Frantz, Conestoga; Michael Pfautz, Conestoga; George Klein, Northkill; John Jacob Beshor, Swatara; George Adam Martin, Conewago; Abraham Duboy, Big Swamp; Jacob Donner, Codorus; Daniel Leatherman, Little Conewago; Nicholas Martin, Little Conewago.

"Thus we see that there are in this province fifteen churches of Tunker Baptists, to which appertain eight ordained ministers, elders, or bishops, and thirteen exhorters, or probationers, and four meeting houses; the reason of their having no more places of worship is, that they choose rather to meet from house to house in imitation of the primitive Christians. We see also that their families are about four hundred and nineteen, which contain about two thousand and ninety-five souls allowing five to the family, whereof seven hundred and sixty-three persons are baptized and in communion."[9]

It must be noted that in the above paragraph, from Morgan Edwards, in giving his statistics, he includes the Ephrata congregation with one hundred and thirty-five members. I may say, in passing, that, at this time, 1770, Beissel is in his grave, and his Monastic community has commenced to decline, but it is not necessary to describe in this connection Ephrata, because it forms no part of the Brethren history at this period. For almost all matters of statistics at this time, and many important facts, we are indebted to Rev. Morgan Edwards, and we need to give full recognition to the value of his writings, and descriptions of Cripe, Daniel, 1772-1859, elder. Born May 6 in Pennsylvania, Daniel Cripe was the son of Jacob Gripe, Jr. Daniel and his wife, the former Magdalena Miller (1770-1842), became residents of Montgomery Co., OH, early in the 19th century and raised a family of nine children. He was called to the ministry and became the first elder of the Wolf Creek congregation. In 1829, Cripe led a party of Brethren to settle in Elkhart Co., IN. He was the first Brethren elder and minister in N. Indiana, organizing the Elkhart [County] or West Goshen congregation in 1830. Daniel Cripe died Dec. 10 in Goshen, IN. JAC

Cripe, Glenn A (DB, CB, FGBC), 1901-69, minister, deacon. The son of Alvin and Leona Huber Cripe, Glenn Cripe was a member of the West Goshen Church of the Brethren before he joined the Goshen (DB) congregation in 1926. He was very active in the Bible Monitor* movement and served as secretary of the Dunkard Brethren Publication Board, ca. 1926-32. He was installed in the ministry in 1927.

Glenn and Elsie Long Cripe (m. 1928) left the Dunkard Brethren, ca. 1932, and rejoined the West Goshen Church of the Brethren. In 1953 they became members of the newly established Elkhart Grace Brethren Church, where they served as deacon and deaconess, Sunday school teachers, youth work sponsors, and in other capacities. Cripe, Winifred E. (CB), 1884-1934, missionary teacher. Born near North Liberty, IN, "Winnie" Cripe was the daughter of Jonathan M. and Mary Ellen Rupel Cripe (d. 1888). She joined the German Baptist Brethren in 1895 and attended *Bethany Bible School, 1908-11. Later she studied at Pestalozzi Froebel Teachers' College (1918, 1926). In 1911 Cripe sailed for *China, where she opened and conducted a girls' boarding school at Liao Chou and also developed kindergarten classes for children. She died, while still serving at Liao Chou, in 1934. KIM

* Cripe Family. Jacob Greib arrived in Philadelphia Sept. 28, 1733, aboard the Richard and Elizabeth. He is listed as a charter member of the Little Conewago congregation in York Co., PA, with the surname of Gripe. He and his wife, Elizabeth Ulrich Gripe, moved with other Brethren families to Frederick Co., MD. Later four Gripe families were enumerated in the 1790 census for Huntingdon Co., PA. Shortly after 1800 many of the immigrant's children (John, Jacob, Daniel, Samuel Cripe; Esther Wagoner, Hannah Martin, Catharine Wolf, and Susannah Shively) moved to Montgomery Co., OH. In 1829 *Daniel Cripe, grandson of the immigrant, with his brother Jacob and some of their children, moved to Elkhart Co., IN, where he organized the first love feast and congregation in N. Indiana. Other Cripes settled in Cass, Carroll, Clinton, Kosciusko, St. Joseph, Wabash, and Wayne Cos. This family has figured strongly in the growth of the church in the midwest; there are ministers bearing the name Cripe in all five branches of the Brethren faith. JAC

A SHORT SKETCH OF THE CRIPE FAMILY IN AMERICA

The only recorded CRIPE immigrant was Jacob GREIB, aged 21, who arrived September 28, 1733, at Philadelphia on the ship "Brigantine Richard and Elizabeth". He arrived as a single person according to the passenger list and in 1738 was living in or near what became Hanover Township, York County, Pennsylvania where he helped to organize the Little Conewago congregation of the German Baptists along with the Ulrich, Stutsman, Deardorff and Bigler families. In about 1740 he married Elizabeth ULRICH, likely a daughter of Stephen ULRICH, I. By 1754 they had moved to Frederick County, Maryland, and then on into Bedford County, Pennsylvania by 1776, which became part of Huntingdon County where Jacob died in 1801. He was a cooper by trade and likely a farmer too.

From his will and from deed records we learn that they had ten children who lived to raise families with their correct order uncertain as follows:

Zollman Cemetery

George Horvath, Jr.

This cemetery is on a small knoll near a farm lane off Clemsonville Road near LeHigh Road in Frederick County. It was first discovered by Marie Burns of Frederick, and copied by the contributor and Anne Parry Horvath, with the assistance of Harold Nelson, a local farmer. The land was originally part of William's Neglect. Eight definite stones were found, but only three were legible enough to reveal a name. More are surely buried under the brush.

I am told that any old world attempt to get more information on Jacob Greib's family has so far failed. Even heard from a guy in Germany trying to nail it down with no luck yet.

It could well be that I'm that mentioned guy. Sorry for not replying sooner, but I couldn't reach ancestry.com for quite a long time. Anyway, I feel that I should tell you what I found out in between. It's going to be a little longer, but could be of interest for some of you.

It should be mentioned that I'm far from being a professional genealogist. I work as an engineer in Munich and am only fascinated of genealogy. My wife is a born Greib and comes from a village in Germany (Amöneburg) with many Greibs living there. There were some US requests all asking if Jacob Greib was born there. The answer is a clear no. (I studied the church books myself.) But since I became very interested in this mystery, I still try to find out the interconnections of all Greib families in Germany (about 50 entries in the phone index, and almost everyone has roots in Amöneburg) as well as collecting all data I can get from Cripes in the United States.

What I found out now is very fascinating: In Lorraine, France, many Greibs can be found today as well. This is a completely different branch; furthermore these people are Lutheran and not Catholic like all the German Greibs. According to some genealogists, Swiss Huguenots came to Lorraine around 1680 after a rebellion in Bern, Greibs being under them. The first traces lead to Lixheim, then to Goerlingen, Helleringen and Diedendorf. And, finally, I found a Jacob Greib, born August 7th, 1711, in Diedendorf. Several facts make me think this is the one we all search for:

1. All of the German Greibs were born and died in Amöneburg at that time. No one emigrated. And no Jacob was born there at all.

2. In 1733, Jacob Greib came by ship to Philadelphia with many other passengers, quite a lot of them born in Diedendorf. Harold Eddleman, whom I contacted some time ago, collected all he could get about this journey and put it on the web. It can be found on http://www.disknet.com/indiana_biolab/eg927.htm

3. Jacob claimed his age to be 21 when he arrived in Philadelphia which comes very close to the age of the Jacob I found.

4. Jacob's father (his name was Jacob as well) was a cooper which fits to the small anecdote (be it true or not) that can be found on Pat Mote's website http://jimlong.net/genealogy/cripe.html

Still there was one thing that bothered me: all US genealogists claim there is a sister of Jacob called Elizabeth (*1720) who came with him (though not listed on the ship!) and married Stephen Ulrich. According to what I have, Jacob had 5 siblings, even a sister Elizabeth, but all of them married people in Lorraine (except sister Judith, *1717, of whom I don't have further information). Because of this missing sister I contacted Alice Beard and Don Bowman, and both answered that this is an ongoing myth. In fact there is no proof at all that Elizabeth is Jacob's sister! So it really seems to be that we finally solved the mystery.

I think my sources are quite reliable: around 1970, a German genealogist has made typewriter copies of all the church books in that area. These copies were scanned now and are available on a CD-ROM. There is a French genealogist who provided me with the respective data about Jacob. So here is what I have concerning the early Greib ancestors:

Adam Greib
* maybe in Switzerland
oo in Helleringen/Lorraine
N.N. Maron

Adam Greib
* in Helleringen/Lorraine
+ in Helleringen/Lorraine
oo 18 January 1682 in Helleringen/Lorraine
Sara Hofmann

Jacob Greib
* January 1679 in Helleringen/Lorraine
+ 26 August 1765 in Schalbach/Lorraine
oo 13 February 1709 in Diedendorf/Lorraine
Veronika Lantz
+ 1734

Jacob Greib
* 14 August 1711 in Diedendorf/Lorraine
+ 28 September 1783 in Frankstown, Huntingdon Co., PA

The Swiss root can maybe be followed further on. The original name seemed to be Greub. And there are some experts claiming that the only place where you could find Greubs at that time was Lotzwil near Bern. The next thing to do for me now is to investigate these traces further on.

Best regards
Steffen

August 16, 2004 From: Jann Cripe

I have hired a professional genealogist, Roger Minert, to check the records in Salt Lake City to see if there is any listing of this Jacob Greib leaving Lorraine France and moving to America. Roger is doing the research and will contact me at a later date. He also goes to Europe to do research which may be necessary to find the documentation to prove that this is our Cripe ancestor. Roger descends from the C2 line. If additional information is found, it will be printed in the Cripe newsletter. If there is enough interest, it may be possible to plan a group tour to Lorraine, France (if it is determined that this Jacob Greib is our ancestor) with a Rhine River cruise that would take us from Basel, Switzerland to Rotterdam and Amsterdam just like our ancestor but in a much more comfortable style

Auto of Husband Hit After Skidding on Pavement.

A 67-year-old Mishawaka woman, Mrs. Amanda Cripe, 623 South Union street, who left for a nearby farm early today to buy milk for herself and several neighbors, was killed shortly before 8 o'clock when the car in which she was riding was struck as it turned into the driveway of the Merl E. Fall farm, rural route No. 6, box No. 122A. Her husband, Moses S. Cripe, 70, was driving the car, which was traveling south on Miami road. He works for the Mishawaka city water and electric plant.

The other car involved in the crash was being driven north on Miami road by Frank S. Galbraith, 38, of Bremen, Ind., reportedly an employe of the Studebaker corporation. Also in his car were his two sons, Fred, 12, and Evan, eight. The three were treated at Epworth hospital for minor cuts and shock. The boys were released and Mr. Galbraith is reported to be in good condition.

According to the sheriff's report, Mr. Cripe's car skidded on the slippery pavement when he applied the brakes to turn into the farm driveway on the east side of the road. His car is reported to have been sideswiped on the right side by the left side of the oncoming Galbraith vehicle.

The only local survivor of the victum, in addition to her husband, who suffered minor shock in the crash, is a grandson, Wadsworth Ewers, of 310 East Edgar street, Mishawaka.

Mrs. Cripe was born in Wabash county, Indiana, July 30, 1874, and went to Mishawaka in 1910 from South Bend. She was married in 1803 in Laketon, Ind., to Mr. Cripe. She leaves a daughter, Mrs. Ruth Reid, of Baker, La.; five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Ellen Long, of Wabash, Ind., and Mrs. Carrie Day, of Roanne, Ind., and two brothers, George Clark, of North Manchester, Ind., and Tolliver Clark, of Wabash county.

Mrs. Cripe was a member of the First Christian church of Mishawaka and of the Sunshine Social club.

Shortly after the crash a three and one-half ton dairy truck approaching the wreckage from the north skidded on the slippery pavement and overturned into a ditch on the east side of the road. The driver was uninjured. The sheriff's emergency station wagon also had difficulty with the slick road, hooking a bumper of one of the wrecked cars as it slid to a halt.

(THE LATE)

REV. S. W. HOOVER,

One of the founders of THE DAYTON STAR NURSERIES.

President of The Hoover & Gaines Company from its incorporation until his death in 1895.

Hist of Mtgy Co. Ohio 1882 977.172H673

has attained in a few years, a leading position among the business men of his native county, and judging the future by the past, his business career will inevitably terminate in uncommon success. Mr. Gaines is a man of affable manners and pleasant address, who has won many friends throughout his native county.

MATHIAS GLASER, JR., gardener, Dayton, is of German descent, his father, Mathias, Sr., having been born in Prussia, Germany, in 1808, and his mother, Helen (Weber) Glaser, being born in the same country in 1810. They emigrated to America in 1844, and lived in Buffalo, N. Y., where our subject was born, and where they remained four years, and then came to Montgomery County, Ohio. In about 1850, they located on what was then known as "the old bottom place," and here carried on gardening with the help of our subject as long as he remained at home. In 1864, Mathias, Jr., left home and worked out. In 1865, he enlisted in the Seventy-first Volunteer Infantry, and was afterward transferred to the Fifty-eighth Ohio Veterans, in which he served six months, principally on provost duty at different places. In 1870, he married Mary T. Schneider, by whom he has had four children. They are members of Emanuel's Catholic Church. Though unfortunate, through sickness in his family, Mr. G., with the assistance of his wife, is making rapid strides toward success.

ANDREW GREULICH, butcher, Dayton, was born in Dayton, Ohio, September 14, 1846. His parents were, Balser Greulich, who was born in Baden, February 8, 1810, and Volberg (Abberger) Greulich, who was born in Wurtemberg in 1816. Balser Greulich emigrated to America in 1834, and landed in New York, where he was married in 1836. He worked at his trade of butchering in New York until 1839, when he went to Pittsburgh, where he worked six years, and then, in 1845, came to Dayton, Montgomery County, Harrison Township, where he has since obtained, by dint of hard labor and close economy, about thirty-one acres of land, well improved, and a comfortable brick dwelling. He is the father of nine living children, and has had one child that died in infancy. He is one of the oldest butchers in the city of Dayton, having commenced attending market when the old Market House was built. Andrew, our subject, is unmarried, and still lives at home. He has taken charge of his father's business, and can always be found at his stand, No. 33 Market House. He is a member of the Butchers' Society and Catholic Church.

HENRY HALLER, farmer and gardener, P. O. Dayton, is the son of Daniel and Kitty (Bowles) Haller, of Frederick County, Md., where our subject was born, and there received a good common school education. At twenty-two years of age, he married Elizabeth Barger, who was born in 1809. In 1848 he came to Dayton, and, in 1849, commenced farming for Col. Patterson, with whom he remained three years, and then bought the place on which he now resides. He is a Republican in politics, and in religion a member of the United Brethren Church. He has had six children, of whom two are now dead. Mr. Haller has a nice home, and twenty acres of ground, on which he raises vegetables for the city markets.

FRANCIS M. HALLER, farmer, P. O. Dayton, was born on the old homestead, October 18, 1836. He is the son of John and Elizabeth (Yost) Haller. His father was born in Frederick County, Md., in 1803, came to Ohio in 1827, lived six months in Dayton, and then moved to his farm, where he died April 1, 1881, having been an Elder in the Reformed Church fifty years. He had been married twice; first to Miss Anna Yost, by whom he had three children, and afterward to her sister Elizabeth, subject's mother, by whom he had two children. Our subject has always been at home. He has had a fair education. He married Miss Nancy Olinger, daughter of William Olinger, by whom he has had six children, four girls and two boys. He is a Republican in politics, and a member of the Reformed Church.

SAMUEL W. HOOVER, of the Dayton Star Nurseries, P. O. Dayton, was born in Montgomery County, Ohio, April 16, 1837. His parents were Jacob and Elizabeth (Cripes) Hoover, natives of Pennsylvania, who came to this county prior to 1820, and settled in Jefferson Township, where his father still resides. His mother died in 1864. Samuel W. was the eldest in a family of four children, three of whom are living, and his boyhood was spent upon the home farm, attending the common district school as much as circumstances permitted. He was married January 26, 1860, to Catherine Basore, daughter of Samuel and Lydia Basore; he was a native of the "Keystone State," and she of Ohio, they being early settlers of Montgomery County. Mrs. Hoover was born in this county, and has had three children, two of whom are living, viz., Oliver P. and W. I. T. Hoover. In 1869, Mr. Hoover began working in the nursery of Kinsey & Gaines, and in 1871, although having but little capital, he purchased Kinsey's interest, and became a partner, under the firm name of Hoover & Gaines, which has continued to the present time. In 1879 they moved their business to their present location upon the Wolf Creek pike, in the northern suburbs of Dayton, where they operate about three hundred acres in the nursery business, doing a wholesale trade of about $70,000 in the past year, their nursery being one of the most extensive west of the Alleghanies. Mr. Hoover and wife are members of the German Baptist Church. He is a member of the Montgomery County Horticultural Society, also of the Miami Valley Nurserymen's Association, of which he was Secretary several years; and of the American Nurserymen's National Association, of which he was one of the Executive Committee two years. Thus it will be seen that Mr. Hoover's life has been an active one, and productive of much good; and besides his well-known successful business qualifications, he has ever taken a deep interest in the elevation of humanity and the development of his native county. Courteous and affable at all times, he is a fitting representative of the successful business man and well-bred Christian gentleman.

JOHN KELLER, gardener, P. O. Dayton, was born in Dayton May 24, 1844. He is the son of Phillip and Elizabeth (Martinthaler) Keller. The father was born in Bavaria, emigrated to America in 1835, and after a short stay in New York went to Cincinnati, Ohio, where he, in 1837, met and married subject's mother, by whom he had two children—Rachel, relict of Frank Bethinghamer, deceased, and John, our subject. The children were both made orphans by the death of their parents a few years ago. John lived with his parents until twenty-two years of age, when he married Theresa Ries, by whom he had nine children. He and family are members of the Catholic Church. He is also a member of the Knights of St. George.

JOHN KENNEDY, farmer, P. O. Dayton, was born in Montgomery County, Ohio, December 21, 1822. He is the son of Joseph and Nancy (Kerr) Kennedy. His father was born in Lancaster County, Penn., in 1775, came to Ohio in 1803, and located in Montgomery County where he erected a distillery, which he conducted in connection with his farm work. His wife was a native of Virginia, born in 1797. She was a life-long member of the Presbyterian Church and died in 1862, at the ripe old age of sixty-five years. She was the mother of six children, three of them now surviving. Her husband, when he came to Ohio, purchased forty acres of land, but by industrious habits and close attention to his work he succeeded in accumulating 300 acres at the time of his death, which occurred in 1856. John, our subject, lived with his parents until 1855, when he married Miss Martha Darst, of Greene County, Ohio. He received a very good education in the common schools of Dayton, and afterward attended Center College at Danville, Ill. After his marriage, he located on the farm of 160 acres, which he now occupies. He has had five children, all of whom are living. Himself, wife and oldest daughter are members of the Presbyterian Church. Mr. Kennedy is a Republican, a good farmer, an indulgent father and a highly esteemed citizen.

JACOB KNECHT, farmer, P. O. Dayton, is a native of the village of Hahafrashen in Bavaria, Germany, where he was born December 23, 1835, of parents, Jacob and Marion (Gilder) Knecht, both of German birth. By occupation, the father was a farmer. Both parents died when Jacob was but a youth. In the fall of 1853, November 20, he came to America, money for his passage having been sent him by an uncle, Christ Miller, then living in Montgomery County. On landing in New York City, he there passed a few days, going to Philadelphia, thence to Cincinnati, and in a few weeks on up into Montgomery County. Here he was employed some years performing farm labor and working in the nursery of George R. Mumma. On the 15th

GEORGE KUNS: Rock Creek Twp. will written 4-18-1842. Probated 5-4-1842. Mentions widow. Daus: Elizabeth Flory (who is indebted to him for $300 for land testator gave her in Ohio), Polly Fruman, Susanna Brubeck. Sons: Jacob Kuns, John Kuns, David Kuns and Joseph Kuns. Exec: David Kuns. Wit: John Ashfield, Reuben G. Munday & Commodore Perry Fruman.

DAVID KUNS: will written 8-4-1829. Probated 1-4-1830. Wife Catherine. Children: George and John Kuns. Bro: John Kuns. John Kuns to be Exec. and guardian of David Kuns children. John Kuns to have power to sell his real estate & lay the money out for more land for his children if to advantage. Wit: C. McCombs, Jacob Kuns & John Hicks.

Mtgy. Co. History: George & Jacob Kunz to Mtgy. Co. 1804. George a native of Berks Co. Pa. where he md. Elizabeth Gripe and to them were born the following children: John, Jacob, Daniel, David, Joseph, Polly Elizabeth, Ester, Susan and Hannah.

George speculated extensively in land and possessed several thousand acres in the county. He entered section 28 and lived there in a palace which was erected in 1808 of stone quarried on that section. It was 2 stories high and neatly finished.

In 1825 John Kuns left Mtgy. Co. Ohio for Carroll Co. Ind. In later years went to Piatt Co. Ill. His brother, Jacob Kuns came to Carroll Co. in 1826 until 1853 moved to Cass Co. Ind. Their father, George Kuns came to Ind. in 1830 with his son-in-law, Emanuel Flora. Mr. Kuns died on his farm, while Mr. Flora moved to Cass Co.

GREAT FIRE OF 1839 DELPHI, IND.: 'Washington Hall' tavern belonging to John Kuns loss probably $3,000, no insurance.

There isn't any wills in this book of Barbara Blickenstaff, Samuel Wolf, or Joseph Cripe.

I wonder too about the John Kuns md. to Julia M. Lamb March 5, 1846. Could be John & Hannah's son although he was not mentioned as going to Piatt Co. with his father as David, Henry & Lewis did did.

Their names are Alvah D., born August 14, 1863, died August 31, 1864; Metta M., born February 27, 1865; Edda D., born April 18, 1866; Capitola L., born August 28, 1868, and Harry M., born June 19, 1872. During the summer of 1885 Mr. and Mrs. Gotshell made a visit to Pennsylvania, where the former was born, returning in three weeks. In politics Mr. Gotshell is a Republican. He is a substantial farmer and an influential citizen.

SOLOMON HORNEY, one of the pioneers of this county, was born in Wayne County, this State, December 23, 1816. He was the third son born to John and Mary (Caldwell) Horney, the former a native of Guilford County, N. C., of English descent, and the latter also a native of North Carolina. He had three brothers and one sister, their names being James, Jeffrey, Jonathan and Esther, all of whom are dead. His early life, until he was sixteen, was spent at home with his parents, a part of which time he worked on a farm, and the balance of the time he lived in Richmond, Ind. During this time he attended school and received a fair knowledge of the common branches. In June, 1836, he came to this county, and at first located in Logansport, where he worked at the carpenter's trade three years. He then began working in a saw-mill, in Noble Township, which was owned by his brother James. This received his attention ten years. He then located upon a farm in Section 13, Noble Township, where he has ever since resided. Politically Mr. Horney is an ardent Republican. He formerly affiliated with the Whig party. His first presidential vote was cast for Gen. Harrison. He is now in his seventieth year, and enjoying good health. He is an honest and respected citizen.

130.1.2.2 JACOB KUNS (deceased) was born in Huntingdon County, Penn., October 16, 1797. He was the second son born to George and Elizabeth (Cripe) Kuns. He had five brothers and four sisters, their names being John, George, Jacob, David, Joseph, Polly, Betsey, Esther and Susan, all of whom are dead except Betsey. When he was five years old his parents immigrated to Ohio. In the fall of 1827 our subject came to this State and located in Carroll County. Here he farmed until 1853, when he came to this county. In 1855 he located upon a farm in Noble Township. In 1872 he settled upon a farm in Section 21, same township, where his death occurred April 1, 1886, aged eighty-eight years, five months and fifteen days. October 4, 1819, he was married to Mrs. Nancy Troxell, a native of Pennsylvania, born August 21, 1796. She was the daughter of John Deel. She died in Noble Township January 10, 1873. This marriage resulted in the birth of eight children: John, born October 12, 1820; George, born April 3, 1822; Elizabeth, born January 14, 1824, died in 1845; Nancy, born April 29, 1826, died October 11, 1827; Jacob, born July 4, 1828; Susannah, born March 28, 1830, died March 27, 1863; Mary, born March 27, 1832, and Washington, born December 24, 1833. Mr. Kuns was a Democrat in politics, and a member of the Masonic lodge. In addition to his agricultural pursuits, he traded and dealt in live-stock quite extensively, utilizing to that end his two large farms situated in Carroll and Cass Counties, respectively.

130.1.2.2.5 MRS. MARY KUNS was born in Eel Township, this county, April 12, 1838. She was the second daughter born to Henry and Mary (Klinksick) Whipperman, both natives of Germany, of German descent. When yet a child her father moved to a farm in Clinton Township. Here she lived until she reached her seventeenth year, when, October 4, 1855, she was married to Jacob Kuns, a native of Carroll County, this State, born, of German descent, July 4, 1828. He was the third son born to Jacob and Nancy (Deel) Kuns. Mr. and Mrs. Kuns have had but one child—Horace J.—born April 29, 1858. Mr. Kuns is a Democrat in politics. They own 83½ acres of good land, with good improvements in the way of fences and buildings. They are living in a fine two-story brick house, which was erected at a cost of about $3,000.

130.1.2.2.8 WASHINGTON KUNS, who was born in Carroll County, Ind., December 24, 1833, is the youngest child born to Jacob and Nancy (Deel) Kuns. At the age of twenty-two he removed with his father from Carroll County to Cass County, Ind., and in the fall of 1855 located in Galveston, where he engaged in merchandising. A year later he returned to his father's farm in Noble Township, where he took charge of the home farm, in addition to which he was engaged in manufacturing interests in Logansport, and also dealt in live-stock to some extent. In the spring of 1869 he immigrated to Polk County, Iowa, where he was for three years engaged in stock-raising. After spending one year in the stave business in Arkansas he returned to Cass County, where he was employed in the capacity of a yard clerk for Messenger & Bevan, lumber dealers. In the spring of 1876 he removed to Monticello, Ind., where he engaged for nearly two years with Harbolt & Messenger, undertakers and lumbermen. He was then employed as bridge carpenter on the Pan Handle Railroad for a short time, and in the spring of 1879 located upon a farm in Section 33, Bethlehem Township, where he has ever since resided. Sarah J. Lowman, a native of Indiana, born June 10, 1834, became his wife August 29, 1854. She is the daughter of Samuel and Elizabeth (Williams) Lowman, natives of Ohio. Mrs. Kuns died in Iowa August 14, 1871. January 2, 1876, Katie Hennick became his wife. She is a native of Pulaski County, Ind., born December 4, 1853, a daughter of Jacob and Barbara (Huddleston) Hennick, natives of Ohio. KILLED BY A SNOW SLIDE.

The Body of Thomas Kendall Brought to Delphi for Interment—His Tragic Death and the Narrow Escape of Thirty of His Friends Who Were Entombed for Five Days.

The remains of Thomas Kendall, a nephew of Mr. Isaac Farneman, were brought to this city Monday evening and burried from the Presbyterian church Tuesday morning. The Odd Fellows turned out in a body and conducted the funeral services, the sermon being preached by Rev. H. G. Rice.

The deceased was killed in a snow slide near Ouray, Colorado, Feb. 7. The story of his tragic death and the incidents connected with the removal of the body to this city would scarcely be credited were they not vouched for by men whose word is their bond.

Thomas Kendall was a miner and with eight companions occupied a cabin in the Old Lot Mining region in Colorado. On the evening of February 7, the cabin was struck by a terrific snow slide and the greater portion of it carried down the mountain into the canon three thousand feet below. Kendall and two of his companions were carried to death by the avalanche, the other five escaping. The work of rescuing the bodies was commenced at once, and when the same were recovered, thirty men started with them to Ouray, eight miles distant. When half way down the canon they were obliged to abandon the bodies and take refuge in a mining tunnel. A second snow slide came and entombed them in the tunnel. A party of three hundred men went to the rescue of the entombed miners, and after working night and day, rescued them at the end of the fifth day, which was Thursday of last week.

The body of Kendall was then taken to Ouray and shipped to this city.

Among those who attended the funeral was John Kendall and wife, of St. Louis; Calvin Hoan and wife, of Chicago, and Mr. Flora, of St. Louis.

The diseased was a member of the Danville lodge, I. O. O. F., and a delegation of four brethren from that city attended the funeral.

The deceased was killed by a snow slide near Ouray, Colorado, Feb. 7. The story of his tragic death and the incidents connected with the removal of the body to this city would scarcely be credited were they not vouched for by men whose word is their bond.

Thomas Kendall was a miner and with eight companions occupied a cabin in the Old Lot Mining region in Colorado. On the morning of February 7, the cabin was struck by a terrific snow slide and the greater portion of it carried down the mountain side into the canon three thousand feet below. Kendall and two of his companions were carried to death by the avalanche, the other five escaping. The task of recovering the bodies was commenced at once, and when the same were recovered, thirty men started with them to Ouray, eight miles distant. When half way down the canon they were obliged to abandon the bodies and take refuge in a mining tunnel. A second snow slide came and entombed them in the tunnel. A party of three hundred men went to the rescue of the entombed miners, and after working night and day, rescued them at the end of the fifth day, which was Thursday of last week.

The body of Kendall was then taken to Ouray and shipped to this city.

Among those who attended the funeral was John Kendall and wife, of St. Louis, Calvin Rives and wife, of Chicago, and Mr. Kean, of St. Louis.

The deceased was a member of the Danville lodge, I. O. O. F., and a delegation of four brothers from that city attended the funeral.

Obituary

DR. LONGNECKER DIES.

Dr. David F. Longnecker, former Emporia eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, died in San Diego, Calif., Friday, according to news received by friends here. He was 87 years old.

While no information has been received, it is believed that the body may be brought back to Emporia for burial in Maplewood cemetery, where Mrs. Longnecker was buried.

Dr. Longnecker, a native of Pennsylvania, received his medical education in Jefferson Medical college, Philadelphia, from which he was graduated in 1876. He also took special training in Wills Eye hospital, Philadelphia. He practiced a short time in Kansas City and came to Emporia in the early 1880's. He was said to be one of the first three medical men in Kansas to limit his practice to eye, ear, nose and throat. His office for many years was above the old Ryder and Protheroe drug store in the 800 block on Commercial. In later years it was above the Strand theater building, where from 1919 to 1922 he was in partnership with Dr. W. B. Granger. Dr. Longnecker left Emporia for San Diego about 1924.

Dr. Longnecker married Miss Ella Flory, daughter of the late Col. A. M. Flory, in Emporia. She died in about 1920. Dr. Longnecker is survived by one son, Frank Longnecker, San Diego newspaperman. Another son, Donald, a world war veteran, died soon after the war.

Emporia friends say that Dr. Longnecker has been seriously sick several weeks and had expected to undergo an operation this week.

Burial services were held Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock for Don Longnecker, formerly of Emporia, who died Sunday in Los Angeles, Calif. The body was met at the Santa Fe station by relatives, friends and an escort from the Masonic lodge. It was taken to Maplewood cemetery where Rev. W. S. Dando, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, conducted the burial services. The pallbearers were Ted Brooks, Charles Martin, Albert Lakin, Selleck Warren, Calvin Lambert and Eugene Lowther.

Soon after war was declared in 1917, along with several Topeka and Emporia boys, he enrolled at the first officers training camp, at Fort Riley. He was discharged from the camp because he was under weight, but he made a determined effort to enter the service and July 13, 1917, he enlisted as a private in the 70th infantry brigade headquarters under Gen. C. I. Martin. He servod with the 35th division during its training period at Camp Doniphan, and while there was transferred from brigade headquarters to the 130th Field Artillery, with which organization he went overseas. In the A. E. F. he took part in the battles of St Mihiel and the Meuse-Argonne and engagements in the Vosges mountains in Alsace and the Verdun sector. He was discharged after his return in 1919.

After the war, he worked in Topeka and later for the West Coast Life Insurance company at Los Angeles until a year ago, when he worked for the Southern California automobile club. He was sick six weeks before his death in Los Angeles.

He is survived by his father, Dr. D. F. Longnecker, of Los Angeles, and one brother, Frank Longnecker, of San Diego. His mother, Mrs. D. F. Longnecker, died in 1917. He was a member of the American Legion post in San Diego.

DEATH OF COLONEL FLORY.

Another Old Soldier and Respected Citizen Passes Away.

The death of Colonel Flory, a prominent and highly respected citizen of Emporia, occurred at his residence on Commercial street last evening at 5:30 o'clock. After years of suffering, the last ten months of which he was confined to his room nearly all of the time, he passed away, leaving behind him the record of an honorable and consistent life. The funeral will be held from the residence to-morrow at 5 o'clock and will be conducted by Rev. F. J. Sanerber, of the First Presbyterian church, of which the deceased was for years an active member. The burial will take place at Maplewood cemetery under charge of the Preston B. Plumb and Hancock G. A. R. posts.

The sincere sympathy of the entire city is extended to the bereaved family who have suffered the loss of one who was a devoted husband and a loving parent.

Col. Aaron M. Flory was born in Carrol county Indiana October 16, 1832. When yet a small boy he moved with his father to Cass county Indiana, where he lived on a farm with his parents until he entered the Miami University at Oxford, Ohio, from which he graduated in the year of 1858. After he had finished at Oxford he went to Logansport where he studied law and was admitted to the bar in 1859.

On the 26th day of July 1859 he was married to Miss Eliza S. Funston, of Cass county, Ind., who survives him.

He has three children all of whom are still living—Alvin T. Flory, Mrs. D. F. Longenecker and Mrs. W. H. Eastman, all of whom are well known in this city. Col. Flory moved his family to Emporia in 1883 and entered the practice of law in our city which occupation he has continued since when his health would permit, having served our people two years as county attorney.

As a soldier Colonel Flory's record is without a reproach. He entered the Forty-sixth regiment of Indiana volunteers as captain of company B on the 6th of October, 1861, and arose to major of the regiment, May 23, 1862, and to lieutenant-colonel February 10, 1863. His regiment was in active service for four years, in Missouri, Arkansas, Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas, was in many important engagements and has to acknowledge but one retreat. Colonel Flory was captured on April 8, 1864, at the battle of Mansfield, or Sabine Cross Roads, and was held a prisoner for several months, the most of which time was spent in prison at Tyler, Texas. He escaped from prison on November 13, '64, but the privations and sufferings experienced there had so nearly ruined his health that he has been a sufferer ever since. After escaping he rejoined his regiment and was mustered out at the close of the war with the rest of the regiment at Louisville.

As a citizen and a soldier Colonel Flory's name will ever hold an honored place in the memory of Kansas citizens.

Funeral of Col. Flory.

The funeral of the late Colonel Aaron M. Flory was held from the residence on Commercial street yesterday evening at 5 o'clock. The attendance was large and the obsequies were solemnized in a very impressive manner. The services were conducted by Rev. F. J. Eastman, in Topeka, was brought to town this afternoon on Santa Fe train No. 5, and taken to the Longenecker home on Union street. Not my family line, just sharing.

The following Biographical sketch was copied from the book "HISTORY AND BIOGRAPHY COUNTIES OF WHITE AND PULASKI, INDIANA. Historical and Biographical. Illustrated. Chicago; F.A. Battey & Co., Publishers. 1883. page 768, Beaver Township, Pulaski County, Indiana.

"DANIEL C. GORDON was born in Ohio in 1839, His parents, WILLIAM and MARY ANN (CARTRIGHT) GORDON, were natives of the same state, and were born in 1811 and 1814, and married in 1834. About 1841, the family moved to Cass County, Indiana, and in 1856 came to this township. In February, 1861, DANIEL C. GORDON married ELIZABETH, daughter of JOSEPH and RACHAEL (FLORA) KUNS, of Carroll County, Indiana, and born November 1, 1841. To this union was born one child, MOSES M., March 13, 1864. After his marriage, MR. GORDON moved to Ford County, Illinois, but returned in 1866. In 1868, he went into mercantile business in company with his brother, MOSES M., at Francesville, and at one time was robbed of $1,300 worth of goods. He now resides on the farm he purchased when he first came to the township. The brothers and sisters of MR. GORDON were born and named in the following order: MOSES M., May 13, 1836; JAMES S., December 6, 1837; THOMAS, October 7, 1840 (deceased); MARY E., April 6, 1842 (deceased); WILLIAM, January 27, 1844 (died in the Army); RACHAEL A., February 4, 1846; WILSON, May 18, 1851, and JOHN W., December 11, 1853."

CHAPTER ELEVEN
319. Abraham Pippenger
(1806-1868)

Abraham Pippenger, born October 19, 1806 in Montgomery County, Ohio, was ninth child of John and Rebecca (Bird) Pippenger, Sr. He was a farmer, was married September 27, 1838 in Montgomery County, Ohio to Hannah Wolf.

Hannah, born May 11, 1817, died at the age of 84 years, 8 months and 16 da
; on January 27, 1902 as Hannah Bowser, and was buried in the German Bap tist Cemetery of Pyrmont, Montgomery County, Ohio. Hannah was one of ten Chil-ldren of Jacob[b] and Elizabeth Wolf.[c] Hannah was remarried December 17, 1879 in Brookville, Ohio to Philip Bowser.[56]

The Census of 1830 lists this family in Warren Township (p. 87) of Tusc arawas County, Ohio with no children, and later we know he owned a farm 2miles west of Brookville, Ohio at the corner of the W.A. Road and Toms
-Run Road.[7] Later, Abraham's family was listed on the Census of Perry Townnship, Montgomery County, Ohio as follows: 1840 (p. 253), 1850 (family 2549
8, p. 448), and Abraham crippled 1860 (family 134, p. 342). In 1860 Abraham ~~aham~~ Pippenger was listed as being crippled. Abraham's farms were located on the Southeast quarter of Section 5 (40 acres), and all of the Southwest e of Section 4 (60 acres) of Perry Township.

According to Abraham's headstone in Pyrmont Cemetery, he died April 13, 1868
8. His will was written March 16, 1868 in Montgomery County, Ohio.[8]

The notes about JOSEPH KUNS (1815-1879) are mine. William Addison Kuns (1856-1884) died of miner's colic aggravated pneumonia. Before his marriage to my grandmother, Emmaline D. Wolford-Kuns-Booher, Patterson, he spent a little time in the Nevada mines where he got the "miner's colic". Before his posthumously born daughter, Alice Rachel, was off the breast my grandmother was being courted by Jacob Booher.

Charles Coburn (1877-1961)

Charles Coburn

Charles Coburn, a character actor and Georgia native, enjoyed a lengthy career on stage, screen, and radio that reached its height in the 1940s and 1950s, when he was in his sixties and seventies.

Charles Douville Coburn was born in Macon on June 19, 1877, to Emma Louise Sprigman and Moses Douville Coburn. Coburn grew up in Savannah and as a young boy handed out programs in a local theater, where he received his first role, a bit part in the stage performance of William Gilbert and Arthur Sullivan's opera The Mikado. Failing to win other parts for which he auditioned, Coburn worked briefly as a house manager until, at the age of nineteen, he left Georgia for New York City and the lure of Broadway.

His prospects in New York were grim, and he supported himself with a variety of odd jobs, including theater usher and package deliveryman. Shortly before he was to return to Savannah, he was hired as an advance man in a theater. This job yielded his first professional stage role, in a Chicago company's traveling production of Quo Vadi s.

Coburn continued acting in traveling companies and by 1904 was starring in the lead role of The Christian. In 1905 he founded his own theater company, the Coburn Shakespearean Players. That same year he met Ivah Wills when they were cast together in a production of William Shakespeare's As You Like It. They married in 1906 and went on to produce several Broadway and off-Broadway plays.

Coburn was a passionate advocate for theater education and wrote letters to universities encouraging them to add professional actors as instructors. In 1934 the Coburns and Union College president Dixon Ryan Fox founded the Mohawk Drama Festival on the school's campus in Schenectady, New York. The festival comprised an eight-week summer course in theater and the production of several plays.

After his wife's death in 1937, Coburn moved to Hollywood, California, and began a film career. Although his earliest listed film credit is for Boss Tweed in 1933, the 1938 release Human Hearts is often cited as his first substantial film role. He appeared in supporting roles in numerous films, including Idiot's Delight (1939), Made for Each Other (1939), The Devil and Miss Jones (1941), King's Row (1942), In This Our Life (1942), Heaven Can Wait (1943), and The More the Merrier (1943), for which he won an Academy Award for his portrayal of Benjamin Dingle, a blustering but endearing businessman who typifies the characters Coburn often played. Although he was a classically trained stage actor, Coburn accepted many film roles that incorporated comedic and slapstick elements.

In the early 1940s Coburn appeared in as many as four or five pictures per year, but in 1945 he signed a contract with Columbia Pictures for just four movies in two years so that he could return to the stage and take on numerous radio and television parts. (The light film schedule also allowed him time to write an article on Savannah theater for a 1948 book titled Stories of Old Savannah.) His later screen work included roles in Gentleman Prefer Blondes (1953) and Around the World in 80 Days (1956). His final film was John Paul Jones (1959), in which he played Benjamin Franklin.

In 1959 Coburn married Winifred Natzka, who was forty-one years his junior and the former wife of Oscar Natzka, a New Zealand opera singer. Coburn died of a heart attack in New York City on August 30, 1961, at the age of eighty-four. He appeared in his last role, in a stage production of You Can't Take It with You, in Indianapolis, Indiana, a week before his death. Coburn, who visited Georgia throughout his adult life, bequeathed his collection of theatrical papers and photographs to the University of Georgia's Hargrett Rare Book and Manuscript Library. His ashes were scattered in Georgia, Massachusetts, and New York.

In the 1940s, Coburn served as vice-president of the Motion Picture Alliance for the Preservation of American Ideas, a right-wing group opposed to Communists in Hollywood. His virulent leadership of the blacklist of anyone with any connection to Fascism or Communism, supported by such Academy-Award nominees as Adolphe Menjou and Ginger Rogers, led to a myriad of talented actors, writers and directors being driven out of Hollywood and deprived of their livelihood during the witchhunt.

Biography

American actor Charles Coburn had already put in nearly forty years as a stage actor, producer, and director (specializing in Shakespeare) before making his screen debut at age 61 in Of Human Hearts (1938). At home in any kind of film, Coburn was most popular in comedies, and in 1943 won an Academy Award for his role in The More the Merrier as the bombastic but likable business executive forced by the wartime housing shortage to share a Washington D.C. apartment with Jean Arthur and Joel McCrea. Coburn continued playing variations on his elderly scalawag character (he was the living image of the Monopoly-board millionaire) throughout the late 1940s and 1950s, most notably as Marilyn Monroe's erstwhile "sugar daddy" in Gentlemen Prefer Blondes (1953). The actor also kept busy on stage, touring with the Theatre Guild as Falstaff in Merry Wives of Windsor and supervising the annual Mohawk Drama Festival at Schenectady's Union College, which he'd founded in 1934. Moving into television work with the enthusiasm of a novice, the octogenarian Coburn continued acting right up to his death. Coburn's last appearance, one week before his passing, was as Grandpa Vanderhoff in an Indianapolis summer-stock production of You Can't Take It With You. ~ Hal Erickson, All Movie Guide

Subject: CRIPE - DIEHL Connection

Since Delores mentioned the DIEHL surname, I thought I'd toss this one out... The youngest one, Justin, was a student of mine a few years ago, and I helped him gather some of the connections back into history, so that we could show we were related.

I have recently visited with his grandparents, Ken and Dorothy. They live here in Modesto... Ken has promised to fill me in on some of the missing details.

I have more info on both the CRIPE and DIEHL lines her, if you need it.

Cripe-Ullery. 1892

A wedding, the preliminaries of which were skillfully managed and the outcome very pleasant, occurred in the outskirts of the city on Christmas eve, December 24. Rev. Jacob C. Cripe and Mrs. Julia A. Ullery, of Greene township, were married at 8 o'clock by Rev. N. D. Williamson, at the home of the groom, on Michigan avenue, west of Laporte avenue. The groom had kept his secret thoroughly well from his children, but when they saw their new mother they were thoroughly content. Both of them have long had their homes in St. Joseph county, though both were born in the same county in Ohio. A very abundant supper followed the ceremony and little Miss Ernsberger gave a Delsarte recitation of "Home, Sweet Home."

A mothers gone to live with Jesus,
Over on the Shining Shore;
She's gone away from earthly trials,
All her sorrows now are o'er.
The toil-worn hands are folded gently
On the mothers silent breast;
The busy feet are stilled forever—
She has earned the needed rest.
For she heard the Savior calling,
In a voice of sweet accord;
"O well done, thy faithful servant,
Enter into thy reward."
Do not mourn for one so Saintly,
All ye children, great and small:
But rejoice that she is happy—
She has gone to Jesus call.
An earnest Christians gone to God,
But her life work, great example,
Leads them in the path she trod.

2) John Becket and Susan (Ullery) Price

From several sources we can determine that John Becket Price was born about 1802.

St. Joseph County Deed Records book 4 p. 640 indicates that John (no middle name) Price purchased land on July 24, 1837. It was in section 17, twp 35 N. R 2 E.

Page 50 of the 1840 census for St. Joseph County, Indiana shows John B. Price. He is listed as being between 20 and 30 years old. With him is listed a female between 20 and 30 years old.

Whether or not this is John Beckett Price is not known. If so, the female is unknown. The age for John seems a little off. If it is John Beckett Price, then the female was either a wife who died between 1840 and 1842 or perhaps a sister.

St. Joseph County, Indiana Marriage Records, Book 2 p. 226 records the marriage of John B. Price and Susan Ullery on July 3, 1842.

John and Susan Price appear on page 129 of the 1850 Penn Township, St. Joseph County, Indiana Census. John is 47, Susan is 46 and their son Joseph Price is 7 years old.

They are listed on page 205 of the Penn Township, St. Joseph County 1860 Census. John is 57 and Susan is 55 years old. No one else is listed in the household.

Page 234 of the 1870 Census for Center Township, St. Joseph County, Indiana lists them both as 67 years old.

The St. Joseph Valley Register issue April 20, 1876 reports: "Died on Palmer's Prairie, Friday morning, April 14th, 1876, of nervous debility, John B. Price, age 74 years. . . . ."

John B. Price's 1876 will in St. Joseph County Will Books, Book 4. p. 213 mentions his brothers Joseph B. and Benjamin (deceased) and his sisters Sarah Jane (Price) Jackson, Mary Ann (Price) Byers (deceased), Miranda (Price) Riddle, and Ruth (Price) Sims. From Sarah Jackson's 1882 obituary we know that another sister was Melinda Hardman (i.e. Hartman).

The South Bend Weekly Tribune issue of September 23, 1882 reports "The wife of John B. Price and sister of D. C. Ullery, died ysterday at her residence on Palmer's prairie, five miles south of the city . . . . Mrs. Price's age was 79 years." Susan's will is recorded on page 199 of book 5 of the St. Joseph County Will Books. Jane Price (widow) is listed among those who received items from the estate. Joseph B. Price was the executor.

CATHERINE ULRY STROOP.

C427.1 C154.1

Catherine Ulry Stroop, only daughter of John C. and Susan Ulry, was born April 10, 1844, in Montgomery county, Ohio, and departed this life July 12, 1919, at the home of her daughter Mrs. B. F. Oram, in Logansport, Indiana, age 75 years, 3 months and 2 days. Mrs. Stroop moved with her parents to Miami county, Indiana at an early age and located on what is known as the Elihu Plummer farm in Pipe Creek township. Here she grew to womanhood and in 1859 was united in marriage to Moses S. Stroop. This union was blessed with nine children of whom Nellie, Charles, Minta, Mary and Sut, preceded her to the Spirit Land. Those now living to mourn their loss are, Mrs. Frank Oram, Logansport, Ind.; Mrs. Henry Longley, Chattanooga, Tenn., and Dave and John Stroop, both of Mobile, Alabama.

Mr. Stroop being in delicate health, with his wife and estimable family decided to try a chance of climate and in the year 1885 they moved to Chattanooga, Tennessee, all to no avail, however, as he died on July 18, 1887, the wife and mother being called upon to assume the responsibilities, incidental to rearing a large family alone, a work, which few have done more admirably. When Father Time began to lay his hand too heavily upon her, she decided to spend her declining years with her children, and every season she changed from North to South, where she was always loved and respected by everyone, old and young, rich and poor.

She was a consistent member of the church of the Brethren, having affiliated herself with this church early in life. No one could come in contact with such a beautiful character and not feel the benign influence of all that was worthy of imitation.

Funeral services were conducted at the home of her daughter, Mrs. B. F. Oram, in Cass county, Sunday at 4 p. m., after which the body was shipped to Chattanooga, Tennessee, accompanied by the immediate relatives. Burial will take place in the beautiful Forest Hill Cemetery at that place. Thus closes the life of one of the good mothers in Israel.

Death of an Aged Pioneer.

Mrs. Elizabeth Stutsman, better known as "Betsy," wife of John C. Stutsman, died last night of paralysis at the family residence in Clay township, three miles north of the city, at the advanced age of 83 years. She was a member of the well-known Ullery family of fourteen children, eight of whom are now living, including Elder D. C. Ullery, Stephen Ullery, Mrs. Farneman, and others of this county. The deceased was a native of Dayton, Ohio, and had been a resident of this county for many years, being, in fact, one of its earliest settlers. She was seized with a paralytic stroke about one year ago and has been helpless ever since. Mrs. Stutsman was a lady highly esteemed for her many excellent qualities and made her life useful. The funeral services will be held to-morrow forenoon at ten o'clock at the Ullery church, on the Niles road, Elder Isaac Miller officiating.

130.1.5.4.1.3.

Leon Ullery, Aged 10, Dies From Broken Spine.

Leon Ullery, aged 10, died Monday evening from the effects of a fractured spine, the injury having been received in a fall from a barn, five weeks ago. The boy was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ullery, who live north of South Bend on the Niles road. He was born in South Bend and attended school at Ullery district school, north of the city.

Young Ullery was assisting his father in the re-roofing of a barn on the day of the accident. He missed his footing in some manner and tumbled off the roof, a distance of 20 feet, off the roof to the ground, a distance of 20 feet. In falling he struck the wheel of a wagon.

Considerable anxiety was felt at first over the injury, but as the lad appeared to recover it was thought that no serious effects would result. Two weeks ago he became seriously ill. A physician was called and he learned upon investigation that the boy's spine had been broken.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the parents' home. Rev. H. W. Kreighbaum will officiate. Burial will be in the city cemetery.

Sudden Death of Mrs. Stephen Ullery.

Mrs. Stephen Ullery died very suddenly at 6 o'clock a. m. Wednesday, at the residence of her husband in Clay township. She awakened Mr. Ullery at the usual hour and he got up and made the fire. She arose shortly afterwards and began to prepare the breakfast. While he was outside the house he heard a noise inside, and going in found his wife lying dead on the floor. She never moved after she fell, so sudden was her death, which is supposed to have been heart disease. The funeral took place at the Ullery church, near the family residence at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon, elder Jas. Miller officiating.

Mrs. Ullery was 78 years old, and was one of the pioneers of the county. Her maiden name was Elizabeth Olinger, and she was born in the vicinity of Dayton, Ohio, and was married there to Mr. Ullery in 1829. They came to this county in 1836 with Mr. Ullery's parents and his brothers Joseph and D. C. Ullery, who still live here. ENDS HIS OWN LIFE

REMAINS OF JOHN SHIVELEY FOUND HANGING ON HOOK.

Pioneer Resident of South Bend Slightly Demented Becomes Tired of Life.

Hanging from a clothes hook in his room at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. Oldinger, three miles north of South Bend, the remains of John Shiveley, aged 71 years, were found at 7 o'clock this morning by his son-in-law. The body was not cold when found, but life was extinct.

Mr. Shiveley had been making his home with his daughter since the death of his wife. Mr. and Mrs. Oldinger accompanied by Mr. Shiveley moved to a farm near the Ullery school house last October. For some-time past Mr. Shiveley has been in poor health and at times it has been feared that he was slightly demented. Several times within the last few months he has threatened to end his life. At first these threats alarmed his relatives and friends, but as he made no attempt to do himself any injury they were not considered seriously. Last night Mr. Shiveley retired to his room on the second floor of his daughter's home. He evidently contemplated his self-destruction as he had, it is supposed previously taken a rope to his room. Some time during the night or early morning hours he tied a slip knot in the rope to a placing the noose around his throat walked over to the side of the room and fastened the end of the rope to a clothes hook. He then drew his feet under him and strangled to death.

This morning Mr. Oldinger did not hear his father-in-law in his room and went up stairs to see if he was ill, when he found him hanging to the wall. The police and coroner were notified.

Mr. Shiveley was a pioneer resident of this vicinity and this county and for many years made his home in South Bend, where his wife died 13 years ago. He leaves one daughter, Mrs. Oldinger with whom he lived.

The funeral arrangements have not as yet been made.

FARNEMAN DECREE

Gets a Divorce After a Costly Ten Days' Hearing of the Case.

TO PAY COSTS AND ALIMONY.

Court Comments Upon Contradictory Evidence Produced—Other Notes of the Circuit Court.

Last Monday afternoon Jerry Donovan, of four miles south of the city, was called to the witness stand to testify in the divorce case brought by Herbert Farneman against Mary Farneman and which has been on trial in the St. Joseph county circuit court for more than a week past. He said that he heard Mrs. Farneman tell her mother over the telephone that she wanted to move to South Bend; that she was not satisfied to live in the country. He mentioned an occasion of going to the Farneman house to accompany Herbert Farneman to a barn dance near Lakeville. He admitted that in a conversation with Mrs. Farneman and others at this time he made the remark: "It's hell, but the directions say, take it."

Would Kick Her Into the Street.

Mr. Donovan said that on the day of the dance near Lakeville he told Mrs. Farneman that if he was her husband he would kick her into the street because she showed a disposition to be dissatisfied with living in the country.

John Culp, a carpenter contractor of Wakarusa, Elkhart county, who worked on the Farneman place in February and June, 1901, testified that Herbert Farneman was at home every night with the exception of Friday during the week previous to the separation and in fact every night the force of men were working on the farm. He never saw Herbert Farneman in an intoxicated condition.

Charged With Abandonment.

Lucy J. Tascher, a sister of Herbert Farneman, related an occasion at the Farneman home when Mary Farneman, the defendant, was taken sick and was removed to the home of her mother. She said that the plaintiff wanted to send for a doctor, but that the defendant objected.

Plaintiff's counsel made an effort to prove abandonment on the part of Mrs. Farneman, showing that she on one occasion refused to accompany the plaintiff to South Bend, but later in the day met him on the street in this city and was informed by his wife that she "was at home." At time of adjournment Mrs. Lucy Tascher was still being examined.

Mrs. Jerry Donovan, of south of the city, was recalled this morning and reviewed the events of the day of the separation. She said that Mrs. Farneman stopped at her home and asked to leave several bundles until some future date. Plaintiff's counsel attempted to show that Mrs. Farneman abandoned her husband.

Elizabeth Jackson was put on the witness stand by the plaintiff and testified that she had known Herbert Farneman for 23 years; that she worked at the Farneman home on an occasion when Mrs. Farneman was ill, and that she heard the plaintiff inquire as to her condition and offer to send for medical assistance.

Lucy Farneman Recalled.

Lucy Farneman, mother of the plaintiff, and defendant in the suit for damages in the suit filed by Mary Farneman, alleging the alienation of her husband's affections, was examined shortly before noon and testified that Herbert Farneman was away from his home but two or three nights during his married life, and that at these times he was at her residence.

It is probable that the taking of evidence will be concluded late this

Lucy Farneman Recalled.

Lucy Farneman, mother of the plaintiff, and defendant in the suit for damages in the suit filed by Mary Farneman, alleging the alienation of her husband's affections, was examined shortly before noon and testified that Herbert Farneman was away from his home but two or three nights during his married life, and that at these times he was at her residence.

It is probable that the taking of evidence will be concluded late this afternoon.

Farneman Decree.

The Farneman divorce case, which has been on trial in the St. Joseph county circuit court since one week ago Tuesday noon, and in which Herbert Farneman asked for a separation from Mary Estella Farneman, came to an abrupt end at 11 o'clock this morning, just after Mrs. John Hinsleman, mother of Mrs. Farneman, who sought a divorce from Herbert Farneman on a cross complaint, had left the witness stand and before any arguments had been made. Mr. Farneman was granted a divorce, the decree to be entered when the plaintiff complies with the order of the court to pay the costs of the suit.

Was a Peculiar Case.

Judge Funk said that the case was a most peculiar one on account of the contradictory evidence that was submitted by the different witnesses. He said that there was an absolute failure of proof that the plaintiff had not provided for his wife. He placed considerable reliance upon the fact that Mrs. Farneman was left at home alone at nights by her husband. Judge Funk said that there was no evidence of cruelty on the part of the plaintiff; that the couple did not have much trouble, and for that reason he would not grant her a divorce, as asked in the cross complaint. He believed that there was no possible chance of a reconciliation, as the parties have not spoken to each other in several years. The fact that Mrs. Farneman abandoned her husband carried considerable weight with Judge Funk.

Defendant Given Alimony.

In rendering judgment the court granted Mrs. Farneman alimony in the sum of $400 and assessed the costs and $100 attorney's fees against Mr. Farneman. The plaintiff was given 30 days in which to make settlement, and until the alimony and costs have been paid the divorce will not be granted. The defendant was allowed to resume her maiden name, Mary Estella Hinsleman.

When Judge Funk had announced his decision Mrs. Hinsleman held a conversation with her counsel, F. J. Lewis Meyer, and smiled in a way that led those who have been following the case to believe that she is well satisfied with the result.

Wife Invades Saloon.

John D. Farneman, aged 20 years, a brother of Herbert Farneman, was examined late Tuesday afternoon. He told of the trip to Elkhart July 4, 1901 and said that the plaintiff was sober on that day. He related an occurence when Mrs. Mary Farneman entered the Urbahn's saloon on Washington street in search of her husband. She found him drinking a glass of beer at the bar and laid hold on his arm, imploring him to return home. eBfore he got ready to leave, however, Mrs. Farneman departed. The witness denied that it became necessary for the defendant to hold her husband in a wagon while they were enroute home. A keg of beer was taken to the Herbert Farneman home in the wagon. The cask was tapped at 9 o'clock in the morning, and, according to the witness, the liquor did not give out until about the middle of the afternoon. Mr. Farneman was positive that none of the party of four was drunk.

Has Always Carried Revolver.

Herbert Farneman was recalled and refuted the charge that he had been absent from home more than three nights during his married life. He said that he has carried a revolver from the time that he was able to know of the weapon's value as a means of defense. He testified that for several nights after the burning of a barn at his home in September, 1900, he kept the gun under his pillow; that his wife never offered any objection to his carrying fire arms. He denied that he cursed his wife because she won a game of cards in which they participated. Mr. Farneman averred that he was never in an intoxicated condition.

The damage case filed by Mary Estella Farneman against Mrs. Lucy Farneman, charging the alienation of her husband's affections, and which was set for trial Thursday, has been continued at the instigation of Attorney F. J. Lewis Meyer, counsel for the plaintiff. Mrs. Farneman in her complaint asks for $30,000.

Mr. Farneman's experience as a litigant will cost him about $1000. The witness fees are unusually heavy.

Mrs. Lucy Farneman.

Mrs. Lucy Farneman, 63 years old, pioneer resident of St. Joseph county and a woman of strong and self-reliant character, who was held in very high esteem by a wide acquaintance, died to-day at her residence on Michigan street road just south of the city limits after an illness with pneumonia and uraemia. The funeral will be held from the residence Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services will be conducted by Rev. Henry B. Hostetter, pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian church, of which she recently became a member. The remains may be viewed Friday from 10 a. m. to the hour of the funeral.

Lucy Jennings Farneman was born June 16, 1846, upon the farm of her father, the late Jesse W. Jennings, who was one of the earliest pioneers and leading agriculturists of St. Joseph county. Her mother was Mary Ann Pearse Jennings, who died in 1890. Three children survive Mrs. Farneman. They are Mrs. Daisy Reilly, Mrs. Lucy J. Tasher and John D. J. Farneman, all of this county. Herbert Alfred Farneman.

Herbert Alfred Farneman, who lived with his mother, Mrs. Lucy Farenman, just south of this city, died last night at 10 o'clock at the St. Joseph hospital. Mr. Farneman was taken sick with typhoid pneumonia three weeks ago, and was taken to the hospital at that time. He had partially recovered when purulent pleurisy set in and an operation was necessary. He was operated on last Tuesday and to all appearances had a bright chance of recovery, but was stricken with meningitis which was the immediate cause of his death.

Mr. Farneman was born Sept. 21, 1877, and his grandfather, J. W. Jennings, was one of the earliest settlers in this part of the state. He had a wide acquaintance in this city and the surrounding country and was well known in business, having managed the affairs of his mother's estate. Besides his parents he is survived by one brother, J. D. J. Farneman, and two sisters, Mrs. Lucy Tasher, of South Bend, and Miss Daisy Farneman, of Toledo.

The body may be viewed by friends at the home from 10 o'clock Saturday to noon Sunday. The funeral will be private and will be held at the home Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Rev. H. W. Kreighbaum officiating. Burial will be in the City cemetery.

From the Daily Tribune of Saturday.

Anna (Ullery) Ullery

d-18 Oct 1879

Death of Mrs. D. C. Ullery.

Mrs. Ullery, wife of D. C. Ullery, whose illness has been occasionally noticed in these columns, died Saturday morning at 7 o'clock, at the family residence on Michigan street, near the southern limits of the city. Mrs. Ullery had been ill for nearly four years and from a hearty strong woman, weighing 207 pounds fell away until a few weeks before her death she weighed less than a hundred pounds. Her disease was indigestion and diarrhoea.

Mrs. Ullery, whose maiden name was Anna Ullery, was born near Dayton, Ohio, June 22d, 1826, and at her death was in the 52d year of her age. She and Mr. Ullery were married on the 3d of December, 1844, and immediately afterwards moved to this county and settled on Palmer's prairie. Afterwards they moved nearer the city, opposite the Stover place on Michigan road, and when Mr. Ullery sold that he built a residence just without the city limits, where they have since resided. Last year Mr. Ullery took his wife to the Pacific coast in hopes that the trip might benefit her, but she continued in failing health and they returned about Christmas. Everything that Mr. Ullery's abundant means could do was done but her decline, was gradual, and long ago the physicians gave up all hopes of her recovery. She died, as she had lived, a true, practical christian, and was sustained through all her illness by that hope of a reward which all true believers have. She leaves no children to comfort one of the kindest and most indulgent of husbands in his great bereavement.

The funeral took place from the residence on south Michigan street, just beyond the city limits, at one o'clock Sunday afternoon. Services by Elders John Barnhart and Jacob Hildebrand. The interment took place in the Palmer's prairie cemetery.

The funeral of David C. Ullery, whose death was mentioned in the Saturday Tribune, was held this morning at 10 o'clock at the Brethren church on South Michigan street, the Rev. Jesse Calvert, of Warsaw, Ind., conducting the services assisted by the Rev. Charles F. Yoder, of Chicago university. The remains were viewed by many friends yesterday and they followed the body to the Ullery cemetery on Palmer's prairie, where the interment took place. David C. Ullery was one of the oldest residents in St. Joseph county. He was born March 13, 1821 in Montgomery county, near Dayton, O., and consequently was 81 years old. Death followed a long illness with a complication of diseases. Mr. Ullery came to South Bend with his parents in 1833 and settled on a farm north of the city, the present site of St. Mary's academy. About two year's later the family moved to a farm south of the city. Mr. Ullery remained on this place until he was 21 years old, when he returned to his birthplace and was married. After living there a few years he settled on a farm south of the city, now owned by Mrs. Lucy Farneman. About 25 years ago he came to South Bend and has resided here ever since. The deceased was one of a family of 13 children, all of whom, with one exception, are dead. The sole survivor is Mrs. Barbara Farneman, who is a trifle older than her brother and makes her home with her son, Isaac Farneman, of South Michigan street. By occupation he was a farmer and had accumulated considerable property. He was the founder of two Brethren churches, the Laura Ullery chapel, about three miles south of the city, and the Brethren church near his home on South Michigan street. He was constituted an elder of the latter church and provided liberally toward its support. For about 15 years he had been practically blind.

City and County Topics.

Death of Mrs. Esther Wenger.

Mrs. Esther Wenger, wife of the late Elder Christian Wenger, died at 10 o'clock Friday forenoon, at her home in Greene township, in the 54th year of her age. Her disease was consumption, and she first became affected with it about a year ago. Through her late husband's position in the church, Mrs. Wenger was well known throughout this and adjoining counties, and fully deserved her name as one of the best and worthiest of women. Her husband died about three years ago and since that time she has lived with her son David, and daughter Emma, on their place, known as the Huff farm, and with them managed its affairs very successfully. When she found that she was affected with a disease that would end fatally, she expressed not only a great willingness, but a great desire to die, and her death-bed was one of that abundant peace which marks the true christian's passage from earth. The funeral took place on Sunday forenoon, at the house, at 10 o'clock, and the remains were interred in the Bowman cemetery, where her husband was buried. d-12 Sept 1879 - 130.1.5.13

Samuel W., 1840-1920, married (1) Elizabeth Shively on 11 April 1861 in Wabash County. She died on 10 March 1888, age 45-0-4. It is said that his family first lived in Kosciusko County, but by about 1880, they lived two miles north of the intersection of State Roads 13 & 114. The children of his first wife were: John Albert, Joseph E., Laura, Dora A., Guilford, Barbara E., Alice, Emma and Noah. Samuel Blickenstaff married (2) Elizabeth Metzger and one source indicates that there were two children by this marriage, Jesse S., and Samuel. That Jesse S., was a son of his second wife is indicated by the tombstone for Jesse which states that he was born in 1891. Emma & Jesse were 2nd marr. No Samuel found anywhere in the records.

5. Jacob, 1842-1921, married Catharine Brubaker, is said to have died at Modesto, California.

6. Isaac, 1844-1845, buried in the Blickenstaff Cemetery, Miami County, Ohio.

7. Joseph, 1846-1933, married Mattie Wooden

8. Elias, 1848-1921, married Alelade (perhaps Ada) Brown

9. Minerva, 1850-1939, married William Naber, buried in the Pleasant Hill Cemetery.

10. Delana, 1853-1935, born in Miami County, Ohio, married Martin Brookins on 6 November 1881 in Wabash County, by Daniel Neff.

SAMUEL BLICKENSTAFF, 1818-1885, was a younger brother of John Blickenstaff; see his family for background information. It is said that Samuel came to Chester Township in 1860. An early plat map indicates that he owned a tract of about 400 acres, including the quarter section first owned by Daniel Swank. The Swank Cemetery is on part of this land.

Samuel Blickenstaff married (1) Mary Gump on 19 January 1845. She died on 18 Febuary 1855, age 33-8-9 and was the mother of at least four children.

1. Margaret, married Isaac Shively on 15 October 1863 in Wabash County, Israel Harter, minister.

2. Mary Ann

3. David, 1848-1919, age 70-6-1. Hannah, his wife, 1852-1932.
Pleasant Hill Cemetery

4. John L., 1850-1944, married Sarah Fage on 6 April 1879 in Wabash County, Elder Jacob Funderburg, minister. Sarah was born in 1858, died 1929.
Pleasant Hill Cemetery

Samuel Blickenstaff married (2) Mary Mangins (or Mangans), born in Maryland, daughter of Daniel & Catharine Mangins. There was one child of this marriage, Drucilla, who died in infancy.

E. Mearl and Alice Josephene (Thomas) Ulmer

E. Mearl Ulmer (twin) born 5 November 1886 with his twin sister E. Pearl Love grew up on a farm in Etna Township near Etna Green with his parents, Henry and Sylthy Linn Ulmer. He graduated from Valparaiso University in 1913 and married Alice Josephene Thomas, born 14 March 1893, daughter of William Wesley Thomas and Mary Olive Brown. They were married in Warsaw at the home of Mearl's aunt, Martha Linn Goshert, and boarded a train for Oregon where he taught school. George Henry Ulmer was born there. They then went to Missouri where his grandfather and family had moved to from Indiana, and taught school and had two more children: Helen Wynona Ulmer and Robert Maxwell Ulmer. Beatrice Leggett, a niece, daughter of Lulu Nodidgie Leggett, his half sister, helped take care of Alice and the children. Grandmother Ulmer persuaded Mearl to come back to Indiana and farm so we did. I can vaguely remember the Negro porter who took such a liking to me on the train. I had three more brothers: Laurence Harrison Ulmer, Paul Edward, who lived only nine hours and Francis Wade Ulmer.

The Mearl Ulmer Family: (L to R): Tillie Ulmer, George Ulmer, Alice Josephine Thomas Ulmer, E. Mearl Ulmer, Laurence Ulmer, Helen Ulmer Williamson, Lester Williamson, and Amy Larue Ulmer.

George and my father formed the Ulmer and Son Fertilizer Company and spread marl, which they dug from Huffman Lake, lime and fertilizer on farm ground. Mearl Ulmer died 13 October 1970 and George Ulmer died 26 December 1970.

I, Helen Wynona, married Lester E. Williamson and live on the farm formerly owned by Oscar Johnson south of Etna Green. We purchased the farm in 1948 and have accumulated 648 acres of land. We had four children: Nancy Elaine Fites, James Roger Williamson, deceased, Russell Williamson, a pilot for Piedmont Air Lines, and lives in Texas and Michael Williamson who lives just over the line in Marshall County and farms the land since we are retired.

In 1969 my mother had a heart attack, and came to live with us since my father was an invalid and in a nursing home. She rented the farm and the house as she realized she would never be able to go back to live by herself, then in 1979 she broke her hip and was in the nursing home until her death 18 October 1984, age 91 years. She was very patriotic, loving, a good Christian, always helping someone in need. She was Betsy Ross in the centennial Parade at Etna Green and the Queen of the Senior Citizens. She loved to read and recited poems by the hour.

George Ulmer married Tillie Hines and had five children: Alice (Mrs. George) Cook, Jerry Ulmer, Joyce (Mrs James) Music, Theodore [illegible]r, who was killed in a motorcycle accident, [illegible] Patricia (Mrs. Ron) York. Her first husband Charles Loser was killed in the same accident.

Laurence Ulmer married Amy Larue and they have an adopted daughter, Carol (Mrs. Dave) Vampner. Laurence and Amy own an antique shop, "Amy's Antiques" in Etna Green; Laurence is a veteran of World War II.

Francis Wade Ulmer married Greta Hassenplug and had two children: Robert Harold Ulmer and Brenda Ulmer Barker. Wade was killed in an automobile accident in 1951. Mrs. Lester Williamson, Etna Green, Indiana 130.1.8

Isaac and Barbara (Cripe) Ulrey

Isaac Ulrey (Ulrich) came to Indiana from Ohio and in 1835 purchased 430 acres in Jackson Township in the southwest part of the township. In 1837 he purchased 320 acres in the eastern part of Lake Township, Kosciusko County. In 1838 he moved his family from Montgomery County, Ohio to Kosciusko County.

Isaac was born in Maryland on December 8, 1786, the son of David and Barbara Ulrich, who moved to the Morrison Cove area in Pennsylvania. From there his parents moved to Ohio. Isaac married Barbara (Gripe) Cripe on January 3, 1808 in Montgomery County, Ohio. She was born June 4, 1788 in Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania, the daughter of John (Creib) Cripe and Elizabeth Rench.

All the children were born in Ohio, namely: David, born March 17, 1808, died March 17,1866, married April 5, 1829 to Susannah Shively; Elizabeth, born March 28, 1811, died December 16, 1894, married July 28, 1836 to David Cripe; Esther, born August 5, 1813, died May 26, 1896, married March 30, 1831 to Jacob Metzger; John Aaron, born July 25, 1816, died August 18, 1864, married July 30,1837 to Sarah Snep; Stephen R., born October 30, 1818, died March 17, 1866, married October 20, 1842 to Mary Swihart; Isaac, Jr., born 1823, married to Nancy. Keith E. Ross, North Manchester, Indiana

John Aaron and Sarah (Snep) Ulrey

John Aaron Ulrey was born in Montgomery County, Ohio and in 1837 came to Kosciusko County with his wife, Sarah Snep, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Clemens) Snep. They settled in Lake Township at the southwest corner of the Packerton Road and State Road 14. On this farm is a big spring which is still running. The first house was a log cabin. Later a frame house was built over the spring. This was called the summer house after the brick house was built. Around 1855 the two story brick house was built with a walk-in basement, since the house was built on the side of a hill. It also had a floored attic. All the downstair rooms had a wainscot of walnut. The trim was all walnut. John Aaron, known as "Big John," was born June 25, 1816 and was killed by a falling tree on July 18, 1864. Sarah was born May 1, 1817 and died January 3, 1895. With the help of the older boys she raised the large family. The children were: Stephen Snep born August 31, 1838, died May 24, 1911, married April 18, 1867 to Mary Jane Tridle; Isaac born December 3, 1839, died November 12, 1861, married June 11, 1861 to Catherine Cripe; Jacob T. born December 10, 1842, died April 5, 1914, married August 27, 1865 to Elizabeth Swihart; Susan born December 10, 1842, died December 7, 1897; John W. born December 13, 1845, died January 12, 1917, married February 1, 1872 to Phoebe Frantz; David C. born July 5, 1847, died May 30, 1946, married February 25, 1872 to Barbara Ulrey; Eli born June 6, 1849, died June 20, 1926; Aaron A. born September 3, 1850 died May 29, 1924, married Alice Miller; Sarah born January 1, 1855, died February 16, 1947, married May 17, 1877 to George Tridle (first cousin to Mary Jane Tridle); Barbara born December 29, 1856, died July 28, 1928, married Aaron J. Ulrey; Anna born July 29, 1860, died August 28, 1861. Keith E. Ross, North Manchester, Indiana

John S. Ulrey

John S. Ulrey, "Little John," born January 3, 1809 near Dayton, Ohio on the site of the present day Veterans Administration, was one of the nine children of Samuel Ullery/Ulrich, Sr. and Esther Gripe/Cripe. His siblings were Elizabeth, Barbara, Susannah, Esther, Sarah, Samuel A., Hannah and Catherine. All these children came to Indiana with their widowed mother around 1837.

Samuel S. Ulrey and wife Phebe (Miller) with children, Letty and Albert.

Mary Ulrey West

In spite of his nickname, John S. Ulrey was of medium height, heavy set, and weighed about 180 pounds. All his life, from age five to age seventy-seven, he suffered a number of broken bones from farm accidents and animals, which included three separate cases of broken ribs. Besides helping around the farm with his father, he also assisted with the blacksmith shop and did a lot of hauling to Cincinnati. As a young child, he was on one of these trips when he saw one of the first ever steamboats sail on the Ohio River, and the celebrating cannon. It was the loudest noise he had ever heard.

In 1829, he made an exploratory trip to Indiana by way of St. Marys, Fort Wayne, and South Bend. There were only four houses inside Fort Wayne, and one house between Logansport and Fort Wayne. Water was hard to find, and his group drank any water they could find, sometimes sucking water through a clean handkerchief from a puddle-filled deer track. Afterwards, he found out that the friendly neighboring Indians at home in Ohio had passed word from tribe to tribe ordering that they take turns watching him from a distance all the way to Indiana and back, making sure he was safe from other unfriendly Indians. The Ulreys had always treated the Indians well, and as equals.

In 1835, he made another trip into this territory, by way of Eaton, Richmond, Indianapolis, Logansport, Huntington and the Eel River as far as Sugar Creek, now called South Whitley. He borrowed $200 from his mother to buy land two miles north of North Manchester; sold that, and finally bought the family farm on the Eel River by Liberty Mills. The family did not bring enough wheat that first year, and subsisted on cornbread until the new wheat was threshed, taken on an eight to twelve-day trip to the nearest mill to be ground, and made into new bread. It was the best bread they had ever eaten. Remember, there were no roads, just trails and marked trees.

1832 He married first, Sarah "Sally" Swihart, June 10, 1843 at Montgomery County, Ohio. They had seven children, namely Samuel S.; Mary; Jacob C., "Jake;" infant Aaron; Jonathan, "Uncle Dots;" Esther; and Sarah. Sarah was the daughter of Jacob Swinehart/Swihart, another Kosciusko County resident, and his wife, Mary Ault. Sarah died of tuberculosis on May 10, 1853, and on July 3, 1856, he married secondly, Susannah Swihart, widow of Isaac Knoop, and younger sister of his first wife. Of this union were born two children, Guilford F. and Anna Rachel Ulrey. Susannah possessed the gentlest and sweetest disposition anyone ever had. John S. Ulrey, during these years of raising a famiy, always had a plot of land set aside for some indigent or unfortunate family which always included a cow and free rent. He also was talented in wood and iron work, was in the hardware and lumber business, and ran a nursery as well for a time in Michigan. He also loved music and permitted his son, Jonathan, to obtain a piano, but the more strict members of the German Brethren forbade such a possession. Jonathan had it moved to a neighbor's house who was not a member of that church. It was at this time that the church was being split in two, one being the Old Order and the other, the New or Progressive Order. John's brother, Samuel, tried to convince him to stay in the Old Order but John refused. He died November 19, 1890, at age 81. Susannah died June 6, 1913. Both are buried in the Eel River Church Cemetery.

Concerning John's children, Samuel S. was born the day his grandfather, Samuel Ulrich was buried from a horse-team accident, September 4, 1833. He married Phebe Miller and died January 21, 1893. They were parents of Letty (ancestor of compiler John V. Horine), and Albert Brennus.

John, as a young man, went to Ohio to visit relatives, and saw Niagara Falls. As a souvenier, he brought back a beaded pocketbook and a comic called Ferdinand Flipper. He did teaching as well as farming.

Mary, born November 25, 1835, married a "foreigner" named Benedict "Ben" R. West, from Georgetown, Kentucky. He was however, an ardent Dunkard, and was highly thought of by everyone. They had one infant son, Willie, who died young. Mary died December 8, 1915.

Jacob C. "Jake," born September 24, 1838, married Frances Ann Baer on July 30, 1865, and moved to McPherson County, Kansas. He also taught school and was a Trustee for McPherson College. He died February 19, 1927 in McPherson Township, and is buried there wth his wife.

Jonathan "Uncle Dots," was turned down because of his small stature when he tried to enlist for the Civil War. Born September 10, 1843, he looked frail enough that many people predicted that he wuld not live long. He lived instead to be nearly 92. He married Eliza Ann Wilson on April 15, 1875, who was well covered in the Whitley County Historical Society's The Bulletin issue, August, 1983. Jonathan believed in the "dry" campaign, was a Republican, and one of the few people still alive in the 1930's who had voted for Abraham Lincoln.

Aaron, Esther and Sarah died young.

Guilford F., born June 26, 1857, married Mate E. Blue, and went to Bartlesvile, Oklahoma.

Anna Rachel, born November 20, 1865, grew up to be a school teacher. She had attended the Normal School, paid by an admiring hotelkeeper when he saw that she possessed a truly fine mind. She was only about fifteen years old then. She married on November 12, 1890, Olin Harley, also a resident of South Whitley. They had children: George Arthur, Robert John, Herbert Leon, William Donald, and Florence Louise. Katharine Harbury, Richmond, Virginia

Benjamin and Lydia (Lautzenheiser) Ulsh

Benjamin and Lydia (Lautzenheiser) Ulsh moved to a farm directly north of Mud Lake in Section 23, Seward Township, Kosciusko County, around 1860. Benjamin was born in Perry County, Pennsylvania on June 17, 1834 to John Ulsh (born August 13, 1797 in Cumberland County, Pennsylvania) and Hannah Kimmel (born November 24, 1804 in Union County, Pennsylvania). Two of Benjamin and Lydia's children were Irvin Henry and Manias Jacob Ulsh. Benjamin later married Rachel Bowman Moyer and they moved to Texas in 1884.

Irvin Henry Ulsh (1859-1952) married in 1887 and lived in Sections 24 and 25 of Seward Township, near Claypool, and later on a farm just east of his father's farm. Irvin is buried at Claypool and his grandson is Robert Ulsh of New Orleans, Louisiana.

Manias Jacob Ulsh (December 15, 1860-1955) married in November of 1886 Doira (Dola) Sholty (September 14, 1861-1930). She was the daughter of William Henry Sholty (born October 20, 1821 in York County, Pennsylvania) and Barbara Hoffman (born September 28, 1819 in Perry County, Pennsylvania). Manias was born in Kosciusko County and Doira was born in Wabash County, Indiana. After their marriage they lived in Laketon, Wabash County, where their son, William Howard Ulsh, was born on February 25, 1904. He currently resides in Charleston, South Carolina. Howard Ulsh, Charleston, SC

Earl and Regina (Kissinger) Valentine

Ellis Earl Valentine was born on October 28, 1876. His great-great-grandfather, George Valentine, came from Germany as a young boy, having been born in 1750. His family settled in Maryland. George fought in the Revolutionary War. He married and had at least one child, John, born in 1786. George died in 1838 and is buried in Ohio.

Earl and Regina Valentine

John married and had nine children. Samuel, the third child, was born in 1815 in Ohio. He married Frances Fulk. They had six children, one of whom was James, born in 1849. He married Letitia Robbins. They were the parents of Ellis Earl. Their family lived in a home west of Mount Pleasant Church, north of Claypool, Indiana, which is still standing today. James and Letitia are buried in Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

Earl married Regina Kissinger in 1900 in Claypool. They were the parents of five children: Lucile, born 1901; June Eileen, born 1902; died in infancy; Irene, born 1904; Miriam, born 1907; Earlene, born 1915.

to be ground, and made into new ones. It was the boots and they had a set for each, however, as there were no roads, just trails and blazed trees.

He married first, Sarah "Sally" Swihart, June 10, 1843 in Montgomery County, Ohio. They had seven children, namely: Samuel S., Mary, Jacob C. "Jake," infant Aaron, Jonathan "Uncle Date," Esther, and Sarah. Sarah was the daughter of Jacob Swihart, a Montgomery County resident, and his wife, Mary Ann. Sarah died of tuberculosis on May 16, 1853, and on July 8, 1855, he married secondly, Susannah Swihart, widow of Henry Minich, and younger sister of his first wife. Of this second marriage there were two children, Stafford P. and Anna Rachel Utter. Susannah possessed the gentlest and sweetest disposition anyone ever had. John C. Utter, during these years of raising a family, always had a plot of land set aside for some medical or herb remedy which always [illegible] of a cow and hay rent. He also was talented in music and took some interest in the nursery business, and ran a nursery as well for a time in Michigan. He also loved music and permitted his son, Jonathan, to obtain a piano, but the more strict members of the German Brethren forbade such a possession. Jonathan had it moved to a neighbor's house who was not a member of that church. It was at this time that the church was being split in two, one being the Old Order and the other, the New or Progressive Order. John, as a young man, went to Ohio to visit relatives, and saw Niagara Falls. As a souvenir, he brought back a [illegible] and a [illegible] called Ferdinand [illegible]. He did teaching as well as farming.

Mary, born November 28, 1858, married a "foreigner" named [illegible] "Dan" R. [illegible], from Georgetown, Kentucky. He was [illegible] and was highly thought of by everyone. They had one infant son, Willie, who died young. Mary died December 8, 1915.

Jacob C. "Jake," born September 24, 1828, married Frances Ann [illegible] on July 30, 1850, and moved to McPherson County, Kansas. He also taught school and was a Trustee for McPherson College. He died February 19, 1907 in McPherson Township, and is buried there with his wife.

Jonathan "Uncle Date," who earned [illegible] because of his small stature when he tried to enlist for the Civil War. Born September 10, 1843, he looked small enough that many people predicted that he would not live long. He lived to be nearly 90. He married Sara [illegible] Wilson on April 19, 1873, who was [illegible] in the Whitley County Historical Society's Bulletin issue, August 1982. Jonathan, believed in the "dry" campaign, was a Republican, and one of the few original voters in the 1940's who had voted for Abraham Lincoln.

Aaron, Esther and Sarah died young.

Stafford P., born June 15, 1857, married Mate E. Bliss, and went to [illegible], Oklahoma.

Anna Rachel, born November 26, 1866, grew up to be a school teacher. She had attended the [illegible] School, paid by [illegible] when she saw that she possessed a [illegible] mind. [illegible] She married on November 12, 1896, [illegible], also a member of South Whitley. They had children: George Arthur, Robert [illegible], Herbert Leon, William Ralph, and Florence Louise. > Decatur Daily Republican (Decatur, Illinois), Saturday, March 1, 1879, Page 3, Column 4
> ASSAULT WITH INTENT TO KILL.
> On Thursday of this week an unpleasantness occurred between Solomon Shively and John L. L. Kuns, both of Oakley township, in which the latter claims that the former assaulted him, knocking him down, and afterward chasing him with a razor, threatening his life. The matter in dispute, according to Kuns' version of the affair, was about as follow Kuns had turned his cattle into a field that he rented last year, that they might eat the cornstalks remaining there. The same piece of ground had been rented by Shively this year, which he claims gives him the right to the cornstalks remaining in the field. The two men met on Thursday, and because Kuns refused to turn the cattle out Shively assaulted him as stated.
> The above is Kuns' version of the affair, but as there is a warrant out for the arrest of Shively, both sides will probably be heard in court on some day next week. The men are both members of the Dunkard Church.

SAMUEL A. ULREY, 1819-1903, was born in Ohio, the son of Samuel and Hester (Gripe) Ulrey. He married Susanna Cripe on 16 June 1839 in Kosciusko County. He was the "Little Sam" in whose barn the communion of the Old Order Baptist Church was held in 1882. It is assumed that he was the Brother Ulrey who donated the large poplar tree which provided enough lumber to completely cover the "White" church that is now in use in Jackson Township. In his will, brought into court in Wabash County, he mentions "my old homestead of 74½ acres in Se. 17 & 18, T 30 N, R 7 E. and as described by deed from the heirs of Isaac Ulrey to me".

Samuel A. Ulrey died 19 March 1903, age 83-10-17
Susanna, wife of Samuel A. Ulrey, died 23 September 1899, age 81-0-9
German Baptist Cemetery, Jackson Twp.

According to his will and census data, his family included the following seven children. Mary and Jacob died young, age 1 year.

1. Elizabeth, who married Samuel Haines in Kosciusko County on 15 April 1871. She was his second wife and the mother of Mr. Rosa Michael, age 98, living in Liberty Mills, Indiana, in 1973.

2. Esther, born about 1843, probably married Jacob I. Ulrey in Kosciusko County on 19 March 1863. According to her father's will, she was the mother of children, and died before her father. A daughter, Barbara, died 11 November 1879 and was buried in the Ulrey Memorial Cemetery. She was age 9 months. No cemetery records were found for Esther. One source indicates that this family moved to Oklahoma. Jacob I. Ulrey is said to have married (2) Rosa, an Indian girl, and to have had two daughters by his second wife. He died in Troy, Montana.

3. Solomon A., born about 1848, married Lettie Fisher.

   Solomon Ulrey, 1848-1939

(Thomas) Ulmer

E. Mearl Ulmer (twin) born 5 November 1886 with his twin sister E. Pearl Love grew up on a [illegible] in Etna Township near Etna Green with his [illegible]nts, Henry and Sylthy Linn Ulmer. He grad[illegible]d from Valparaiso University in 1913 and [illegible]ried Alice Josephene Thomas, born 14 March 1893, daughter of William Wesley Thomas and Mary Olive Brown. They were married in Warsaw at the home of Mearl's aunt, Martha Linn Goshert, and boarded a train for Oregon where he taught school. George Henry Ulmer was born there. They then went to Missouri where his grandfather and family had moved to from Indiana, and taught school and had two more children: Helen Wynona Ulmer and Robert Maxwell Ulmer. Beatrice Leggett, a niece, daughter of Lulu Nodidgie Leggett, his half sister, helped take care of Alice and the children. Grandmother Ulmer persuaded Mearl to come back to Indiana and farm so we did. I can vaguely remember the Negro porter who took such a liking to me on the train. I had three more brothers: Laurence Harrison Ulmer, Paul Edward, who lived only nine hours and Francis Wade Ulmer.

The Mearl Ulmer Family: (L to R): Tillie Ulmer, George Ulmer, Alice Josephine Thomas Ulmer, E. Mearl Ulmer, Laurence Ulmer, Helen Ulmer Williamson, [illegible]er Williamson, and Amy Larue Ulmer.

[illegible]orge and my father formed the Ulmer and S[illegible] Fertilizer Company and spread marl, which they dug from Huffman Lake, lime and fertilizer on farm ground. Mearl Ulmer died 13 October 1970 and George Ulmer died 26 December 1970.

I, Helen Wynona, married Lester E. Williamson and live on the farm formerly owned by Oscar Johnson south of Etna Green. We purchased the farm in 1948 and have accumulated 648 acres of land. We had four children: Nancy Elaine Fites, James Roger Williamson, deceased, Russell Williamson, a pilot for Piedmont Air Lines, and lives in Texas and Michael Williamson who lives just over the line in Marshall County and farms the land since we are retired.

In 1969 my mother had a heart attack, and came to live with us since my father was an invalid and in a nursing home. She rented the farm and the house as she realized she would never be able to go back to live by herself, then in 1979 she broke her hip and was in the nursing home until her death 18 October 1984, age 91 years. She was very patriotic, loving, a good Christian, always helping someone in need. She was Betsy Ross in the centennial Parade at Etna Green and the Queen of the Senior Citizens. She loved to read and recited poems by the hour.

George Ulmer married Tillie Hines and had five children: Alice (Mrs. George) Cook, Jerry [illegible]er, Joyce (Mrs James) Music, Theodore [illegible]r, who was killed in a motorcycle accident, [illegible] Patricia (Mrs. Ron) York. Her first husband Charles Loser was killed in the same accident.

Laurence Ulmer married Amy Larue and they have an adopted daughter, Carol (Mrs. Dave) Vampner. Laurence and Amy own an antique [illegible] "Amy's Antiques" in Etna Green; Lau[illegible] is a veteran of World War II.

plug and had two children: Robert Harold Ulmer and Brenda Ulmer Barker. Wade was killed in an automobile accident in 1951. Mrs. Lester Williamson, Etna Green, Indiana 130.1.8

Isaac and Barbara (Cripe) Ulrey

Isaac Ulrey (Ulrich) came to Indiana from Ohio and in 1835 purchased 430 acres in Jackson Township in the southwest part of the township. In 1837 he purchased 320 acres in the eastern part of Lake Township, Kosciusko County. In 1838 he moved his family from Montgomery County, Ohio to Kosciusko County.

Isaac was born in Maryland on December 8, 1786, the son of David and Barbara Ulrich, who moved to the Morrison Cove area in Pennsylvania. From there his parents moved to Ohio. Isaac married Barbara (Gripe) Cripe on January 3, 1808 in Montgomery County, Ohio. She was born June 4, 1788 in Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania, the daughter of John (Creib) Cripe and Elizabeth Rench.

All the children were born in Ohio, namely: David, born March 17, 1808, died March 17,1866, married April 5, 1829 to Susannah Shively; Elizabeth, born March 28, 1811, died December 16, 1894, married July 28, 1836 to David Cripe; Esther, born August 5, 1813, died May 26, 1896, married March 30, 1831 to Jacob Metzger; John Aaron, born July 25, 1816, died August 18, 1864, married July 30,1837 to Sarah Snep; Stephen R., born October 30, 1818, died March 17, 1866, married October 20, 1842 to Mary Swihart; Isaac, Jr., born 1823, married to Nancy. *Keith E. John Aaron and Sarah (Snep) Ulrey

John Aaron Ulrey was born in Montgomery County, Ohio and in 1837 came to Kosciusko County with his wife, Sarah Snep, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Clemens) Snep. They settled in Lake Township at the southwest corner of the Packerton Road and State Road 14. On this farm is a big spring which is still running. The first house was a log cabin. Later a frame house was built over the spring. This was called the summer house after the brick house was built. Around 1855 the two story brick house was built with a walk-in basement, since the house was built on the side of a hill. It also had a floored attic. All the downstair rooms had a wainscot of walnut. The trim was all walnut. John Aaron, known as "Big John," was born June 25, 1816 and was killed by a falling tree on July 18, 1864. Sarah was born May 1, 1817 and died January 3, 1895. With the help of the older boys she raised the large family. The children were: Stephen Snep born August 31, 1838, died May 24, 1911, married April 18, 1867 to Mary Jane Tridle; Isaac born December 3, 1839, died November 12, 1861, married June 11, 1861 to Catherine Cripe; Jacob T. born December 10, 1842, died April 5, 1914, married August 27, 1865 to Elizabeth Swihart; Susan born December 10, 1842, died December 7, 1897; John W. born December 13, 1845, died January 12, 1917, married February 1, 1872 to Phoebe Frantz; David C. born July 5, 1847, died May 30, 1946, married February 25, 1872 to Barbara Ulrey; Eli born June 6, 1849, died June 20, 1926; Aaron A. born September 3, 1850 died May 29, 1924, married Alice Miller; Sarah born January 1, 1855, died February 16, 1947, married May 17, 1877 to George Tridle (first cousin to Mary Jane Tridle); Barbara born December 29, 1856, died July 28, 1928, married Aaron J. Ulrey; Anna born July 29, 1860, died August 28, 1861. Keith E. Ross, North Manchester, Indiana

John S. Ulrey 130.1.6.3

John S. Ulrey, "Little John," born January 3, 1809 near Dayton, Ohio on the site of the present day Veterans Administration, was one of the nine children of Samuel Ullery/Ulrich, Sr. and Esther Gripe/Cripe. His siblings were Elizabeth, Barbara, Susannah, Esther, Sarah, Samuel A., Hannah and Catherine. All these children came to Indiana with their widowed mother around 1837.

Samuel S. Ulrey and wife Phebe (Miller) with children, Letty and Albert.

Mary Ulrey West

In spite of his nickname, John S. Ulrey was of medium height, heavy set, and weighed about 180 pounds. All his life, from age five to age seventy-seven, he suffered a number of broken bones from farm accidents and animals, which included three separate cases of broken ribs. Besides helping around the farm with his father, he also assisted with the blacksmith shop and did a lot of hauling to Cincinnati. As a young child, he was on one of these trips when he saw one of the first ever steamboats sail on the Ohio River, and the celebrating cannon. It was the loudest noise he had ever heard.

In 1829, he made an exploratory trip to Indiana by way of St. Marys, Fort Wayne, and South Bend. There were only four houses inside Fort Wayne, and one house between Logansport and Fort Wayne. Water was hard to find, and his group drank any water they could find, sometimes sucking water through a clean handkerchief from a puddle-filled deer track. Afterwards, he found out that the friendly neighboring Indians at home in Ohio had passed word from tribe to tribe ordering that they take turns watching him from a distance all the way to Indiana and back, making sure he was safe from other unfriendly Indians. The Ulreys had always treated the Indians well, and as equals.

In 1835, he made another trip into this territory, by way of Eaton, Richmond, Indianapolis, Logansport, Huntington and the Eel River as far as Sugar Creek, now called South Whitley. He borrowed $200 from his mother to buy land two miles north of North Manchester; sold that, and finally bought the family farm on the Eel River by Liberty Mills. The family did not bring enough wheat that first year, and subsisted on cornbread until the new wheat was threshed, taken on an eight to twelve-day trip to the nearest mill

Bill & Delores,

So you guys are finally getting some rain? We are suppose to get rain every day this week, except Wednesday, so I had better get all of my outside projects finished that day. I still have all of my spring flowers, so maybe I should spend the day pulling them out and throwing them away.

Don (according to Gale) said that the bible records have proved the order of birth for the children. The bible belonged to a man by the name of Dr. Marcus Miller, of Pleasant Hill, OH, the bible was in very bad shape so after saving the records, he tossed it!

The records are in German, but I will try to translate them for you guys:

Jacob Greib, born 8 August 1793
Maria Greib, born 5 September 1798
Jacob Greib & Maria Weilands, married 10 April 1814

1 Elizabeth Greib, born 19 June 1816
2 Susanna " , born 15 September 1818
3 Sarah " , born 26 September 1820
4 Barbara " , born 7 November 1822
5 Hannah " , born 10 October 1824
6 Samuel " , 18 April 1828
7 Johannes " , 10 October 1830
8 Jacob " , 4 january(?) 1833 February from TS
9 Maria " , 26 October 1836
10 David " , 13 december(?) 1838
11 Catharine " , 4 june(?) 1842

There were no death records. I'm going to try and publish it in the newsletter in December, if I can only figure out the months. I guess I know a few people who speak German and I can ask them.

It is suppose to be warm this week, but rainy! My long uniform pants arrived in the mail yesterday afternoon, so I am good to go once it finally gets cold.

SAMUEL A. ULREY, 1819-1903, was born in Ohio, the son of Samuel and Hester (Gripe) Ulrey. He married Susanna Cripe on 16 June 1839 in Kosciusko County. He was the "Little Sam" in whose barn the communion of the Old Order Baptist Church was held in 1882. It is assumed that he was the Brother Ulrey who donated the large poplar tree which provided enough lumber to completely cover the "White" church that is now in use in Jackson Township. In his will, brought into court in Wabash County, he mentions "my old homestead of 74½ acres in Se. 17 & 18, T 30 N, R 7 E. and as described by deed from the heirs of Isaac Ulrey to me".

Samuel A. Ulrey died 19 March 1903, age 83-10-17
Susanna, wife of Samuel A. Ulrey, died 23 September 1899, age 81-0-9
German Baptist Cemetery, Jackson Twp.

According to his will and census data, his family included the following seven children. Mary and Jacob died young, age 1 year.

1. Elizabeth, who married Samuel Haines in Kosciusko County on 15 April 1871. She was his second wife and the mother of Mr. Rosa Michael, age 98, living in Liberty Mills, Indiana, in 1973.

2. Esther, born about 1843, probably married Jacob I. Ulrey in Kosciusko County on 19 March 1863. According to her father's will, she was the mother of children, and died before her father. A daughter, Barbara, died 11 November 1879 and was buried in the Ulrey Memorial Cemetery. She was age 9 months. No cemetery records were found for Esther. One source indicates that this family moved to Oklahoma. Jacob I. Ulrey is said to have married (2) Rosa, an Indian girl, and to have had two daughters by his second wife. He died in Troy, Montana.

3. Solomon A., born about 1848, married Lettie Fisher.

   Solomon Ulrey, 1848-1939

DANIEL CRIPE JR., 1818—1881, the third son of Daniel Cripe Sen., was born in Montgomery County, Ohio, and came to Pleasant Township with his father from St. Joseph County, Indiana. He married Barbara Cripe on 17 March 1842 in Kosciusko County. She was the daughter of Jacob C. Gripe and Daniel's second cousin. Daniel and his wife appear in the 1850 census with three children: Susan, Elizabeth and Noah. Cemetery records indicate that they may also have had Sarah and Hiram who died young.

It is said, like his brothers, he first built a log house near Crooked Creek. The location was some distance west of the present church house on Road 13. In 1875, he built the brick house north of the church, now occupied by Orville Metzger. This place was known as the Jacob Karn place in 1926. Daniel also moved the barn from his former home-site to its present location.

Daniel Cripe Jr., was a breeder of fine horses, and his death resulted from being kicked by a horse.

Daniel Cripe died 24 April 1881, age 62 years
Barbara, wife of Daniel Cripe, died (1 or 21) February 1853, age 30-3-14
Old Cripe Cemetery

Other sources state that Daniel was born on 1 September 1818. The children of Daniel and Barbara included the following:

1. Mary, daughter of Daniel & Barbara Cripe, died 30 January 1846, age 3-0-9
   Old Cripe Cemetery

2. Susanna, 14 April 1845, 25 May 1860. She appears in the 1860 census.

3. Elizabeth, married George Frantz, 17 October 1869, in Wabash County.

   George Frantz, 1848-1880, age 32-7-28
   Elizabeth, his wife, 1848-1909, age 61-9-11
   Pleasant Hill Cemetery

   Their children were: Tressa Brandenburg, Elmer E. Frantz, Dan and Emma.

4. Noah, married Susan Ulrey, daughter of Jacob Ulrey.

   Noah Cripe 1850-1937
   Susanna, his wife, 1854-1911
   Pleasant Hill Cemetery

5. Jacob E., born prior to 1 February 1851, married Anna Robinson, said to have been living in 1881.

Daniel Cripe Jr., (repeat) married (2) Mrs. Polly Mohler, the widow of Samuel Mohler, on 5 October 1853 according to Wabash County marriage records. The Mohler family came to Jackson Township before 26 September 1850, the date of the 1850 census. According to The Wabash County History, 1884, Samuel Mohler died on 26 November 1853, but this does not agree with other records. Kosciusko County Will Book I shows that Samuel Mohler made his will on 1 January 1850, and his will was presented in court by his wife, Mary, and Isaac Albright on 13 January 1851. The witnesses were Samuel Ulrey and John Snell. They certified his age as 32 years. His children were not named in his will. No cemetery records were found for Samuel Mohler.

The known children of Samuel and Polly Mohler are presented here.

Eliza, born about 1831, probably married Jacob B. Shively on 29 October 1859 in Wabash County. David Ulrey was the minister.

Henry Mohler, born about 1842, taught school at Acme school house in 1866-1867. He was mustered out of the 113 Regt., Ind., Vol., on 2 December 1865. It is said his daughter, Lulu, (perhaps Luella) was reared by Daniel Cripe and that she married Thomas Lair(d).

Lydia, born about 1844, probably married Christian D. Shively on 31 March 1861 in Wabash County.

Brethren Encyclopedia, 1983, Vol. I, p396:
Dorchester Church of the Brethren, NE, located in Saline Co. It was organized before 1882. Earliest records of the district mention the congregation in May, 1882, and also the sale of a tent to it. From the inception of the district in 1882, Dorchester congregation contributed members and active interest in district activities. J. R. Cripe served as treasurer for district mission work and as a member of the mission board. In 1884 Dorchester hosted the second district meeting in its meetinghouse, located two miles southeast of the town of Dorchester. When lands were opened in 1886 for free homesteading in western Kansas, most of Dorchester's members emigrated to Cheyenne Co., Ks, helping to organize the Cheyenne congregation. Those who did not move to Kansas scattered to other areas, and the congregation disappeared from the district minutes by 1893. [Likely elected to the ministry in this congregation]

1885, Israel Cripe of Knob Noster, Johnson Co, MO wrote a report printed in the Gospel Messenger.

Almanac, 1886-1917 [1903 Scottsville MI, 1904 & 1909 Mount Carroll IL], Yearbook, 1918-1932. These two Church of the Brethren ministerial publications need further examination.

Ministers for Whom No Biography Appears….Israel Cripe, Hart [Hart congregation not organized until 1915, so he may have lived there although his address is given in the above, attending a nearby church]

Brethren Encyclopedia, 1983, Vol. II, p880:
Mount Carroll, IL, Church of the Brethren. In 1879 the Arnold Grove congregation purchased a Lutheran meetinghouse in Mount Carroll. A Sunday school was organized there, and a town congregation developed. In 1908 members voted to divide the congregation, and on January 13, 1909, Mount Carroll was organized separately. John G. Royer was the elder. The district mission board provided financial assistance, and Alice Garber became a mission worker here. Mount Carroll had pastors for several years, but the congregation declined. Members deeded their meetinghouse to the district and disorganized on Jan. 14, 1932. The remaining nineteen members were issued membership letter.

Joseph's cremated remains were never taken after his death and are still available at the Oregon State Hospital to anyone who is related. More information is available at http://www.oregon.gov/oha/amh/osh/pages/cremains.aspx

A book by David Maisel and a documentary by Ondi Timoner & Robert James, both entitled "Library of Dust" also provide more information.

Joseph was born in Ohio in October 1854. He was the oldest child of Benjamin Welch and Sarah Ellis. His mother had 7 children. Three of Joseph's siblings were: William, Annie and Grant.

On August 4, 1876 in Saline, Nebraska, at the age of 22 Joseph married 17 year old Sarah Ann Cripe. They had 3 children, 2 lived to adulthood: Albert Richard Welch (born Oct 8, 1877) and Etta May Welch (born in Feb 1888). In the 1880 census the family lived in Saline County, Nebraska where Joseph was a farmer, and in 1900 he was a teamster. For some time he lived in Columbia County, Oregon.

St. Helen Mist (newspaper) in Columbia County, reported Joseph was committed to the Oregon State Mental Institution on Sept 7, 1911. The hospital directory indicated he "may be alcoholic." He died there on June 14, 1917. The cause of death was listed as paresis, a brain disease occurring as a late consequence of syphilis, characterized by dementia, progressive muscular weakness, and paralysis.

His wife, Sarah died in 1918. His son Albert died in 1958.

EXPLOSION AND DEATH.

Boiler Lets Go in Quarry at Montpelier

John Cripe, the Engineer, Blown Thirty Feet and Killed—Narrow Escape.

The boiler at Speace's limestone quarry, near Montpelier, let go shortly before 6 o'clock Friday evening and the engineer, John Cripe, aged 19 or 20, unmarried, was killed instantantly. Five or six other men working in the quarry within 25 or 30 feet of the boiler escaped injury. It is supposed that the water in the boiler was allowed to get too low and the fearful explosion followed.

Young Cripe was standing immediately back of the boiler when it let go. He was blown back about 35 feet and his body fell in a small dry quarry. The boiler went forward for a distance of 90 or 100 feet. A piece of it about the size of a man's hand cut off a four inch limb of a tree 300 yards away. The boiler fell in about eight feet of water in a quarry. It took some time to find the body of Cripe. The whole side of the head was torn away and the body was otherwise terribly bruised by the fall, besides being badly scalded.

Cripe had taken the position of engineer at the quarry that morning. The explosion was probably due to his lack of knowledge as to the boiler's mechanism. It is considered almost miraculous that some of the men working in the quarry, among whom were the dead boy's father, were not injured.

Not long before the boiler let go the Lake Erie and Western passenger train, which runs near the quarry, passed.

CREAMERY SWINDLERS.

Get Away With About $3,000 of Adams County Farmers' Money.

Adams county has been victimized by a smooth lot of swindlers and they left Decatur last week with a bank roll of about $3,000 as a reward for two weeks' work. There were about eight men in the gang and a brightly lettered wagon for each two. Each morning these wagons starting in four directions from town would go in search of suckers, and from reports now coming in they must have found them.

They claimed to represent the Lafayette Creamery company, Lafayette, Ind., manufacturers of a machine guaranteed to separate cream from milk. Going to the house of the gullible farmer they would show how nicely the machine worked, then make a proposition that they leave one on three months trial at the expiration of which time they would be around to repaint it and if then satisfied the farmer could have same for $68, and they would enter into the contract to buy all their butter and give them twenty-two cents per pound for same; if not satisfied they would take the creamery back and charge them nothing.

They were successful and about ten or twelve men to each of the northern townships went against the graft with the utmost confidence that they would soon become rich. They were of course required to sign a little receipt, just to show the company where they had placed their goods, and thereby change the rub—for these little receipts turned out to be promisory notes for $68, nearly all of which were sold at the Monroeville bank just before the grafters got ready to leave. For several days the victims have been busy in their efforts to figure out how they were beaten.

That said account is entitled to be allowed, approved and settled.

THEREFORE, IT IS BY THE COURT ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that said account be, and the same is allowed, approved and settled.

The court further finds from the evidence that since the filing of said report the executor has paid to the Court Clerk the sum of $ 26.95 in full settlement of all costs incident to the settlement of this estate, and to Wilcox & Swank an attorney fee of $50.00 for services performed for the executor in said estate, and has paid to himself under order of this court the sum of $297.62, being the statutory commission allowed the executor which is in full for all of his services, including his expenses incurred by him in the management of this estate. He, therefore, has a balance of $ 1722.88 on hand subject to the order of this court.

The court further finds from the evidence that all claims against said estate, all taxes due thereon and all charges and expenses of administration have been fully paid and discharged, and said estate is now in condition to be settled and closed; that said executor has honestly and faithfully performed the duties of his trust and is entitled to be released and discharged as such executor after making distribution of the estate remaining in his hands as hereinafter ordered.

Thereupon the court proceeds to hear the petition for the determination of the heirs at law, legatees and devisees of the said Jacob Gripe, deceased, and from the evidence finds that the said Jacob

Gripe died in and a resident of Payne county, Oklahoma, on the 5th day of July, 1922; that he left a last will and testament which has been heretofore duly and regularly probated in this court and proceeding and which is in words and figures as follows, towit:

"LAST WILL OF JACOB GRIPE

"I, Jacob Gripe, of Mulhall, Payne county, state of Oklahoma, being now in good health, strength of body and mind, but sensible of the undertainty of life, and desiring to make disposition of my property and affairs while in health and strength, do hereby make, publish and declare the following to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking and cancelling all other or former wills by me at any time made.

"1. I direct the payment of all my just debts.

6. To my daughter, Lydia Askren, one ninth part,
9. To my son, Jacob Gripe, one ninth part,
10. To my son, Charles Gripe, one ninth part,

To my grand-daughter, May Fisher one forty fifth part,
To my grand-daughter, Edith Snyder one forty fifth part,
To my grand-son, Hoy Gripe, one forty fifth part,

To my grand-daughter, Ethel Gripe one-forty-fifth part, which above grand-children are the children of my son, William Gripe, who has become deceased. If any of my children of grand-children should become deceased before me that my above real estate shall be divided according to representation.

"3. All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate of every kind or nature whatsoever and wheresoever situated I hereby will, give, bequeath, and devise to my above children and grand-children according to representation.

"4. I hereby appoint and designate my son, Robert Gripe, sole executor of this my last will and testament without bond.

"In witness whereof, I, Jacob Gripe, have to this my last will and testament subscribed my name this 15th day of September, 1917, at Thomas, Custer county, Oklahoma.

"JACOB GRIPE

"Subscribed by the above Jacob Gripe in the presence of each of us, the undersigned, and at the same time declared by him to us to be his last will and testament, and we, thereupon at the request of said Jacob Gripe, in his presence and in the presence of each other, sign our names hereto as witnesses this 15th day of September, 1917, at Thomas, Custer county and state of Oklahoma.

"RAY P. WYCOFF Thomas Okla
LEANDER J. WILLIAMS Thomas Okla
WALTER D. ALEXANDER Thomas Okla"

The court further finds from the evidence that the following persons named in said will survived the testator, Jacob Gripe, towit:

Nicholas Gripe, son;
Ellen Bahney, daughter;
Menno Gripe, son;
Lydia Askren, daughter;
Charles Gripe, son;
Robert Gripe, son;

which three children succeeded to the entire estate willed by Jacob Gripe to his son, Jacob Gripe, father of said children; that Charles Gripe, named in said will and one of the sons of Jacob Gripe, deceased, died shortly following the death of the said Jacob Gripe, deceased, and left surviving him as his sole heirs at law his widow, Ada Gripe, and his son, Charles J. Gripe.

The court further finds that the estate of Jacob Gripe, deceased, on his death passed under the terms of his said will as hereinafter adjudged.

The court further finds that said deceased left surviving him no spouse, and no child or children of any deceased child except as hereinbefore found.

The court further finds from the evidence that at the time of his death the deceased was the owner and in possession of and that the said described land, together with the sum of $ 1722.88 is now in the hands of the executor subject to the final order of this court.

IT IS, THEREFORE, BY THE COURT ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the said Jacob Gripe died testate in and a resident of Payne county, Oklahoma, on the 5th day of July, 1922; that he left a last will and testament as above set out, and that his entire remaining estate should be, and the same is hereby set over under the terms of said will to the following persons in the proportions shown, towit:
